Foreword

From the sandy wastes of the outerbanks to the upper tricklings of the Roanoke, from the broad fields of the coastal plain to the moss-draped shores of the Cape Fear came men and women to establish a college in rural Pitt County. East Carolina College, when it was founded fifty-five years ago, was destined to become the educational and cultural hub TO SERVE the eastern section of the state.

There is for every person some one scene, some one adventure, some one fiction that is the image of his hopes, of his purpose. In ancient Greek literature, two gates exist through which dreams pass: one gate is made of horn, the other of polished ivory. Dreams come shining through the gate of ivory, but illusive and ultimately disappointing. But through the gate of horn pass dreams of truth—dreams destined for reality.

East Carolina College is a portal through which we, the hopes and dreams of the states and nations, pass. We pass here in our difficult journey from the glories of childhood into the sometimes subtle, sometimes abrupt, contradictions found in the world of sustenance and love and super-bombs. But we do not pass with minds unaltered. Here we learn to see beneath the veneer, to distinguish the shadings of truth and illusion; here we become men equipped TO SERVE. Few of us will be erudite, but each of us must embody something of the ideal and be more able to confront his portion of the burden of existence.

May this, the 1962 edition of the BUCCANEER, serve as a graphic record of East Carolina College—our gate of horn.

Board Of Trustees

Mrs. J. Russell Kirby, Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett, Mrs. Agnes Barrett, Mr. J. Herbert Waldrop, President Leo W. Jenkins, Mr. Henry Oglesby, Mr. Baxter Ridenhour, Mr. F. D. Duncan, Mr. William A. Blount, Mr. James Whitfield, Mr. Robert Morgan, Mr. Reginald F. McCoy, Mr. Fred F. Bahnson, Jr., and absent when photograph was made, Mr. Henry Belk and Mr. W. W. Taylor.

Composed of twelve members appointed by the Governor of North Carolina and approved by the state legislature, the governing body of East Carolina College, the Board of Trustees, is responsible for the management of all the affairs of the institution subject to the applicable laws of the state.

The present Board of East Carolina College is made up of three firm presidents, two newspapermen, two attorneys, a school principal, a teacher, a banker, a congressional secretary, and one who describes herself as a housewife, but whose records show much wider interests and greater civic participation than that would suggest. Oldest in point of service is Mr. Henry Belk who has served on the Board of Trustees since September, 1945.

Formality pervades the scene as Board members, Mrs. Agnes Barrett, Administrative Secretary, and Mr. Herbert Waldrop take time from official duties to engage in a quick repartee.

President Leo W. Jenkins

Elected as the sixth president of East Carolina College by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, Dr. Leo W. Jenkins has in two years established a most commendable record as head of this institution. His inauguration, on May 13, 1960, marked the beginning of a period of progress for the college and the community of which it is a part.

Service on his part does not end with the college for Dr. Jenkins actively participates in numerous civic and educational organizations. The former vice-president of East Carolina is well-known as an author, an orator, an active church member, and a devoted family man.

A native of New Jersey, President Jenkins is a graduate of Rutgers University, Columbia University, and New York University.

DR. LEO W. JENKINS

Though our president leads such an extremely active life, he always finds time for Jeffrey, his youngest son, and other members of his family.

Included in Dr. Jenkins' family are his wife and children. James, Jeffrey, Jack, Suzanne, Patricia, and Sallie Jean.

FITZHUGH D. DUNCAN
Vice-President

Matters concerning business affairs and the over-all improvement of the college and its facilities occupy most of the time and activities of this native North Carolinian who serves as Vice-President of the college.

Administration Building

RUTH WHITE
Dean of Women

A graduate of the college with B.S. and M.A. degrees, Dean White has served as a counselor for female students since 1937. Though it is her task to enforce and set standards for the women students, she is respected on campus.

JAMES H. TUCKER
Dean of Student Affairs

Dr. James H. Tucker, a member of the staff since 1955, deals with self-help jobs and scholarships as well as the overall affairs of the students. In addition, Dr. Tucker serves as Chairman of the Publication Board.

ROBERT L. HOLT
Dean of Instruction

As Dean of Instruction, Dr. Holt is concerned with the supervision of course scheduling and all instructional policies in the college. It is also his duty to edit the college catalogue.

JAMES B. MALLORY
Dean of Men

Though serving as Dean of Men for only two years, Dean Mallory is well known for his concern for the well-being of the male students both on and off campus.

JOHN H. HORNE
Registrar

Throughout the five years Dr. Horne has served as Registrar, much has been done to further the acceptance program at East Carolina College. During his term, high achievement on the Scholastic Aptitude Test has become mandatory for those seeking admittance.

RALPH BRIMLEY
Director of Extension

In September, 1957, Dr. Ralph Brimley joined the administrative staff. Since that time he has developed a unified public relations program that has proven most beneficial to East Carolina College.

Flanagan Building

E. J. CARTER
Director of Graduate Studies

This former Head of the Education Department, Dr. E. J. Carter, succeeded Dr. J. K. Long as Director of Graduate Studies. The native North Carolinian received his Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina and joined the college faculty in 1950.

I. J. EDWARDS
Director of the Placement Bureau

During their last year at East Carolina, students seek aid and guidance from the Director of the Placement Bureau. Problems with future employment are handled by Mr. Edwards and staff with understanding and conscientious sincerity.

G. ALLEN NELMS
Director of Alumni

As Director of Alumni, Mr. G. Allen Nelms supervises alumni activities on campus. Also included in his numerous duties is the maintenance of files and records of former students and faculty.

MARY H. GREENE
Director of News Bureau

A personable lady who makes friends easily and who knows much news of interest among students and college faculty is Miss Mary H. Greene of the News Bureau. Among other things, the News Bureau and its director keeps hometown papers informed about student activities.

JAMES W. BUTLER
Assistant Director of Public Relations

A man of many handshakes and friendly smiles, Dr. James W. Butler is well-known to the students who enter East Carolina College. Improving relations with high schools throughout the area is one of the many duties involved with this position.

REBECCA S. STARKEY

Assistant Registrar

Numerous tasks are involved in the daily work of Miss Rebecca S. Starkey. As Assistant Registrar, she, along with Dr. John Horne, determine the acceptant qualities of students applying for admittance and maintains records of the students and their grades.

DAWYER D. GROSS

Director of Religious Activities

As Director of Religious Activities, Mr. Gross is associated with all student centers in the area, including the YWCA and the YMCA. This former Baptist minister attended Duke University where he received his M.A. degree.

RACHEL STEINBECK

Assistant to the Dean of Women

Known for her musical and artistic talents, Miss Steinbeck is a graduate of the college with both B.A. and M.A. degrees. Counseling, clerical, and personnel work are included in her many tasks as assistant to Dean Ruth White.

Faculty

With a force of over three hundred faculty members who serve in seventeen departments, East Carolina College is noted for its outstanding instructors and departments. In this section, not only will faculty members appear individually and alphabetically, but each department will be represented by a photograph typical of it. Making its debut is the BUCCANEER Faculty Citations honoring a few of the many outstanding college faculty members.

Buccaneer Faculty

Citations

Eleven members of the East Carolina College Faculty have been honored by their selection for BUCCANEER Faculty Citations. This new feature of the BUCCANEER lists but a few of the many outstanding faculty members deserving of such recognition. A committee selected from the Publications Board chose some for their national recognition in their fields, some for their length of meritable service, and others for personal accomplishments. With a desire that this method of honoring distinguished faculty members be continued as a tradition at East Carolina College, the 1962 yearbook presents eleven faculty members deserving of BUCCANEER Faculty Citations.

James William Batten

Dr. James W. Batten was selected as part of a vast force chosen by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration to train the men in whom Uncle Sam's space prestige hopes lie. His specific job, in his own words, was "to train the astronauts in celestial mechanics and celestial recognition." A Goldsboro native, he joined the local Education Department in 1960 after receiving his doctorate from the University of North Carolina. He says he joined the college faculty "because this is a good, growing institution that offers me many opportunities in both my fields." This member of the Mount Olive Junior College Board of Directors has authored Our Neighbors in Space, which he hopes will be adopted as a textbook for astronomy courses.

Elmer R. Browning

Heading the largest of the seventeen departments, the School of Business, Dr. Elmer R. Browning has been a faculty member since 1936. A member of Phi Delta Kappa, Pi Omega Pi, and Delta Sigma Pi, Dr. Browning received his master's degree from Duke University and his doctorate from Colorado State College. This native of Logan, West Virginia, is also a member of the American Institute of Management and the Board of Managers of the local Planters National Bank. Under the leadership of Dr. Browning, the School of Business has grown from a staff of two to become recognized as the largest school of its kind in North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia.

Herbert L. Carter

Known for his promotion of school spirit among the student body, Mr. Herbert L. Carter serves as Director of the Bands and as associate professor of music. Mr. Carter, a native of Mayfield, Kentucky, received his B.M. degree from Murray State College and his M.A. degree from Columbia University. An active member of the North Carolina Education Association and Phi Mu Alpha, professional music fraternity, he, since coming to the college in 1946, has developed the marching band into a distinctive group four times its original size. In the Spring of 1961, the East Carolina Symphonic Band was selected, following audition, to perform at the Southeastern Division of Music Educators National Conference Convention, thus exemplifying the hours of patience and diligent work so unselfishly given by Mr. Carter.

Lucile M. H. Charles

Recognized as an author, a director, an actress, and a professor, Dr. Lucile M. H. Charles joined the faculty in 1946 as a teacher in the English department and as Director of Dramatic Arts. Prior to coming to East Carolina, Dr. Charles acted on the professional stage, studied in the Theater Guild, appeared with a string quintet of the Chicago Symphony as a pianist, and acted as co-ordinator for a Columbia Broadcasting System series. Among the native Chicagoan's writings are articles on medical subjects, a series of articles on primitive drama, and The Story of the Baby Sphinx and Other Fables.

Audrey V. Dempsey

A member of the School of Business faculty, Dr. Audrey V. Dempsey is listed in Who's Who of American Women and Who's Who in Education. Since coming to the college in 1940, Dr. Dempsey has served as sponsor for the local Beta Kappa chapter of Pi Omega Pi, of which she has been national president, organizer, and editor. Dr. Dempsey also holds membership in Delta Pi Epsilon, Kappa Delta Pi, and Alpha Iota. The former Colorado public school teacher is a former corresponding secretary and president of the North Carolina chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, society for women in education.

Membership in Phi Beta Kappa, Who's Who in Education, and Who's Who in East are but a few of the many honors awarded Dr. David R. Davis for contributions to the field of mathematics. The Director of the Mathematics Department received B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Indiana and Ph.D. degree from the University of Chicago. A member of Pi Mu Epsilon and the American Mathematics Society, Dr. Davis has written several textbooks including Modern College Mathematics and Introductory College Mathematics, which he co-authored with W. E. Milne.

David R. Davis

A professor in the science department since 1957, Dr. Frank W. Eller is known for his interest and participation as a radiation officer in Civil Defense. In this capacity, he has instructed classes in radiation monitoring. The native North Carolinian attended Columbia University where he received his doctorate. Dr. Eller, who formerly taught in public schools, is active in civic projects, the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and the Mitchell Scientific Society. He has written a "Guide to Engineering Education" and material on marine biology.

Frank W. Eller

George Pasti, Jr.

This professor of social studies is known for his active participation in world affairs, as evidenced by his chairmanship of the World Affairs Institute held here annually and his interest in promoting the series began on campus this year which features visiting, world-renowned lecturers. Dr. George Pasti, Jr., a former Navy Man, has done graduate work at the University of London and at Harvard University on a fellowship presented him. A member of Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history fraternity, and the Asia Society, he is the author of U.S. Strategy for the Future and Elements of Strategy which he co-authored. This Illinois native is a former president of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

Ovid Williams Pierce

This noted author, Ovid Williams Pierce, joined the faculty of the department of English in 1956. He is the author of a number of short stories and of two novels, The Plantation and On a Lonesome Porch, both with a setting of Eastern North Carolina. These works have gained him national recognition as a writer of fiction. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Mr. Pierce attended Duke University and, two years later, Harvard where his study with Pulitzer Prize winner, Robert Hilkey, increased his ambitions to become a writer. Some years ago, Mr. Pierce restored a house on his farm near Weldon, where he can be found most weekends, writing and engaging in the many interests of a land owner.

Born into a newspaper family, Miss Mary H. Greene, a native of South Carolina, is a graduate of Agnes Scott College with an A.B. degree and of Columbia University with a M.A. degree. The Phi Beta Kappa and Delta Kappa Gamma member joined the local faculty in 1928, thus making her the oldest, in point of service, instructor on the college campus. She serves as Director of the News Bureau and Assistant Director of Public Relations, in addition to being an associate professor in the Department of English. Recognized for outstanding work in the field of journalism, Miss Greene is a member of the Editorial Boards of both North Carolina Education and The North Carolina English Teacher.

Mary H. Greene

Francis Speight, native North Carolinian, came to the college as a resident professor of art this year. The distinguished artist has been described as "unexcelled among native North Carolina artists" and as having "rare genius." His works hang in more than forty museums and in several private collections. In 1960, he was granted the highest award of the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, the Gold Medal of Honor. Other prizes presented him include the Sesnan Gold Medal for Landscape and the Obbrig Prize. This Wake Forest graduate is listed in Who's Who in America and Encyclopedia Britannica, in which one of his works is reproduced.

Residences

With accommodations in eleven dormitories, nine for women and two for men, approximately three thousand students are housed on campus. These dormitories include the oldest, Wilson Hall, erected in 1903 for women students, and the newest, Aycock Dormitory, completed two years ago for men students. Each of the eleven dormitories is under the supervision of a resident that resides in the dormitory for counseling purposes. Other College students either commute, live off-campus, or reside in fraternity or sorority houses.

MR. BILL HOWARD
Director of Housing

Serving as both friends and counselors of the students, the dormitory residents, two male students with military experience, and the dormitory counselors reside in the dormitories with the students. The male housing is under the supervision of the Director of Housing, Mr. Bill Howard, while all female dormitory students are under the supervision of the Dean of Women, Miss Ruth White.

Campus Life

With Spring, came the twist that so conquered the school it lasted throughout the year.

Spring

Spring—the happiest season of the year—brings many activities to the ECC campus; and Spring, 1961, was no exception. With it came the Twist and Hurricane Donna, simultaneously. Highlighting the season's activities was the long-to-be-remembered Spring Carnival. The College Union-sponsored event was unsurpassed, as usual, in fun and pageantry.

Spring brought many more activities, however, than those found on the college calendar. With it came days so full of activity that the publications' staffs were often confined to their offices, even during lunch hours. Announcements were not rare, either, for elections continually resulted in the naming of the key SGA officials, the marshals and their chief, and the first Outstanding Faculty winner.

Entertainment was not forgotten during the season; "J. B." was presented as was the very successful musical "South Pacific." Outstanding campus formals and colorful photographers were also characteristic of this "spring fever" season.

The K. A.'s actively participated in the College Union-sponsored Spring Carnival with their "Try Your Pot Luck."

Once more the APO's continued their service projects with past President Bobby Sasser leading the clean-up following destructive Hurricane Donna.

Cast your vote for the ugliest man on campus . . . The Deltasigs, with their own Mac Burris, did their part in making the Carnival the success it was.

Barber School? No! However, anyone could learn to shave a balloon at the Spring Carnival.

Bud Wall gives his interpretation of "Little Egypt" and her "dance of the pyramids."

... Participation In The Traditional Spring Carnival...

Even the Parisian Can Can could be found at the Sorority Spectacular.

Making its debut appearance, the Sorority Spectacular captured the hearts of the audience as it aided the Chapel Fund with the proceeds. In the presentation, the blue ribbon was awarded to Alpha Xi Delta Sorority who did a take-off on the Lucky Strike Hit Parade with their version, "Ghostville Hit Parade." Second place honors went to Alpha Phi and third place was captured by Chi Omega.

With a cast of over two hundred and under the direction of Kay McLawhorn, the performance was repeated, by popular demand, in April, with proceeds going to the Cancer Fund.

Mammy Yokum, complete with pipe and jug, too!

"And babies make three?" No, but they were typical of the success of the Sorority Spectacular.

"Marryin' Sam" made his (?) appearance at the Spectacular, as did the Li'l Abner characters.

Just like in the funny paper and the movies, Daisy Mae got her man at the Sorority Spectacular.

... The Debut Of The Sorority Spectacular ...

The curtain call for all the participants of Broadway in Springtime, the Sorority Spectacular, was well-deserved. "A Really Big Show" . . . according to the campus critics.

This modern version of the book of Job in the form of "J. B." is one of the most heralded and praised plays of the last decade. "J. B." came to us as a part of the SGA Entertainment Series.

. . . Quality Entertainment, Colorful

With the coming of spring, it seems ECC students find the college pool the most popular and refreshing spot on campus.

"Who to vote for" was the question on everyone's mind in April. Students view the mug shots of SGA officer hopefuls with interest as they attempt to answer the question for themselves.

For the first time, a contest was held to select the most outstanding instructor. The honor was given by faculty and students to Dr. Hubert Coleman, professor in the Social Studies department.

... Spring Elections ...

Photographers, Campus Formals, Hungry Journalists, ...

"South Pacific," a Broadway hit musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein opened in McGinnis Auditorium for a four night run that resulted in capacity crowds and a one day holdover. The production, the eighth annual musical sponsored by the SGA, starred Peter Johl and Betsy Hancock. Each night an estimated crowd of a thousand people was turned away from the box office.

The puzzlement on Tommy Hick's face is evident as the BUC-CANEER photographer invades his room.

$$3(2x^2 - x + 4) - 2(4x^2 + 5x - 2)$$

Larry Wetherly's and Jimmy Scott's problem was math: ECC's was proving the lack of space in the dormitories.

As the regular school year comes to its conclusion, thoughts of the following year began to flow; where to room and who to room with were questions on everyone's minds. As coeds began to register for dormitory facilities for the coming year, it became evident that crowded conditions would prevail.

Coeds patiently wait in the long lines for room assignments . . .

Too many cars and too few parking spaces—Limited parking facilities became evident as did the dormitory facilities.

... And The Highlight Of The Year — ...

At the 1961 graduation exercises Dempsey Williams was administered an oath preceding his commission to the U. S. Marine Corps.

Highlighting the graduation dignitaries was Governor Terry Sanford who stressed the importance of educating in North Carolina and retaining those educated in the state.

Graduation, the end of years of study, marked the beginning of a new era in the lives of more than nine hundred and eighty-three members of the East Carolina College graduating class.

Gathering in the college stadium, on May 21, the graduates marched to "Pomp and Circumstance" into the commencement area where the principle address was given by Chancellor John T. Caldwell of the University of North Carolina.

A new method of presenting the diploma was devised so as to preserve time usually spent by individual presentation. Dempsey Williams, President of the graduating class, was presented one diploma as a symbol of all nine hundred and eighty-three of them. Following the exercise, diplomas were distributed in various departments.

... Graduation — Marked The

Local, state, and national dignitaries and administrative officials of the college lead the 1961 graduation processional.

Yes, with graduation, the 1960-1961 year ended. To some, it meant summer school; for others, the beginning of a new job; to still others, it meant a summer of travel; and, to a select few, it meant a period of parties. We saw several firsts, including the first Sorority Spectacular and the first held-over, playhouse production; we saw several changes in both graduation and registration. We saw the year as we made it—sad, happy, disgusting, and exciting. We saw the 1960-1961 school year come to an end.

Graduates, faculty, friends, and relatives patiently await instructions for the processional of graduating seniors.

Whirlwind Of Activity Found Only In Spring.

Dempsey Williams, president of the graduating class, accepts the diploma on behalf of his fellow-graduates.

Summer

White, silver sands found on the Eastern coast took the college students to the beaches as summer school sessions began.

Rex Harris agrees; those famous East Carolina "sudden cloudbursts" can be annoying, especially in the summer.

Sudden Cloudbursts

Summer, the period of sun and fun, was ushered in by the eager ECC students. The season, to most students, meant more than extra studies; it meant beach trips, bermuda-balls, the Fourth of July, refreshing swims in the college pool, and the famous watermelon cuttings. Yes, summer school was the time for fun—and fun, the ECC students had. Serious minded college students realized, of course that there was more to Summer than fun; therefore, it was not rare to see them mixing their pleasures with their obligations; bermudas and summer classes became synonymous. This season had its drawbacks, as do all. There were too many gnats and too many sudden rainstorms. Then, too, this was the season of the last appearance of Buc, the college mascot.

Cool, refreshing dips in the college pool were eagerly sought by all with such impatience that bermudas often replaced bathing trunks.

Buc's Last Appearance. Refreshing Dips In The Pool...

What a way to spend the summer . . . swatting gnats and attending classes!

East Carolina lost, during the summer school session, its beloved mascot to chronic pneumonia. The death of Buc brought sadness and replies of "we'll always remember Buc" from the student body.

Remembering the pains of registration, but knowing that they had finished—until the next quarter—Buddy Weis, Sherrill Norman, and Jerry Wilkins relax in the Soda Shop.

Students enjoy the music of the Summer School Band, under the baton of Mr. Herbert Carter. This outdoor concert was a portion of the Fourth of July celebration on campus, which featured a watermelon cutting and an address by Dr. Jenkins honoring foreign students on campus.

... Watermelon Cuttings, ...

Can the College Union be too active, especially with its famous watermelon cuttings? Note the expression on Doug Sutton's face. Could he possibly have eaten too much?

Sun shades, watermelons, short-sleeve shirts, and outdoor gatherings—all were typical of the 1961 Summer School.

EAST

STUDENT I. D. CARD

What, me worry? SGA president, Otis Strother, was married during Summer School, as were many other ECC students.

Love and leisure nights often led the students to the fountain and Wright Circle ...

... But leisure days were so infrequent that studies led them past the fountain and Wright Circle to the various classroom buildings.

. . . Week-end Beach Trips, . . .

Could it be possible? Carolyn Barnes apparently enjoys purchasing school supplies in the Student Supply Store.

Morehead and Atlantic Beach was the scene of many enjoyable "sun and fun" weekends. Tom Moore and John Baxter enjoyed the many new acquaintances to be found on the coast.

Miss Cynthia Mendenhall and the College Union made sure that there were plenty watermelons for everyone in summer school. On the weekends, students could be found at the beach, walking on the white-silver sand, lying in the sun or swimming in the cool Atlantic. Yes, summer school was the life, until classes resumed each Monday morning.

. . . Leisure Night By The Fountain, . . .

Even Merle Summers and party found time away from SGA activities to "soak the sun" and "stroll along the boardwalk."

... ECC Night At The

August was the month East Carolina College was featured on Roanoke Island at the "Lost Colony." A celebration which included a fish fry was held in Manteo. Dr. Jenkins, SGA President Otis Strother, and Fodje Hodges, President of the East Carolina College Alumni Association, were among those present at the gathering. A chartered bus took a large delegation from Greenville and the campus. Rain threatened the audience, but at curtain time the clouds parted to reveal a starry background for old Fort Raleigh.

As a part of ECC Night at The Lost Colony, Dr. Leo Jenkins delivered the principal address in which he stated that what is now called the age of space is not a new thing, for at the time of the attempted colonial settlement it was a venture into outer space for Sir Walter Raleigh.

An East Carolina pirate displays the college seal on a flag made for the special event and displayed at the Lost Colony.

On the stage Saturday evening, Dr. Jenkins was a guest performer in the role of Captain Amadas.

Count Basie, regarded as the most explosive force in Jazz, appeared in a two-hour concert on campus during the summer. Jim Loggins and Ward Simmons pose with the Jazz great, Count Basie.

Cost Colony — All But A Small Portion . . .

Frankie Lester, featured singer of the Billy May Band, was a favorite at the Summer School Queen crowning.

The colorfully-dressed Billy May Band furnished the popular music for the Summer School Dance.

. . . Of Summer School.

In such a large college, look-alikes are not rare, but Jim Loggins and billboard ad resemblances are not frequently found.

Following the turmoil of exams, ECC students sought the refreshing atmosphere found off-campus.

As freshman girls came to college, they found those crowded conditions, the large campus, beautiful Wright Circle, and, apparently, cute photographers.

Exploring the halls of Wright proved to be quite a challenge to the incoming freshmen as they found College Union . . . Soda Shop . . . BUCCANEER Office . . . IFC Office . . . Auditorium . . . SGA . . . and the dreaded Judiciary.

At assemblies held during the week of orientation, freshmen became acquainted with "key" administrative officials and campus leaders.

East Carolina College opened its doors to 5,263 students at the beginning of Fall Quarter. Orientation and registration kicked off a new school year that promised to give lasting memories—exams, friends, activities and Homecoming. And, it did, too! . . . This was the year that followed East Carolina College's winning the National Association of Inter-Collegiate Athletics Baseball Championship during the summer. With this as a spirit booster, the students of East Carolina College set out to make 1961-1962 the best year possible.

The Freshmen, Orientation, And . . .

Between classes, freshmen and upperclassmen . . .

. . . had an opportunity to get acquainted.

Speech tests were administered to the new freshmen during the active Orientation Week.

Receptions honoring the freshmen were held in various departments during the final days of the Week. A receiving line for students of the School of Business lasted for hours, with punch as a reward for those who could last through it.

New students poured into Wright Auditorium to meet the campus leaders who introduced them to the various phases of student life.

Characteristic of all registrations are the long lines of students waiting for entrance to Wright Auditorium.

... Dreaded Registration ...

Upperclassmen were on hand, during the day, to help the "green" freshmen with those traditional registration problems.

Am I in the right line? Utter confusion prevails at all college registrations.

It seems as though you can never get exactly what you want; with disappointment, you turn to someone else, hoping to get your second choice.

The busiest portion of Wright during registration seems to be the part occupied by the School of Business. Endless lines are to be found, no matter where you turn.

Following the orientation of freshmen, students once more became exposed to the mad rush that accompanies the beginning of college. Freshmen were exposed for the first time to the rigors of college life—namely, that hectic three-ring circus commonly known as registration. Endless lines confronted the baffled freshmen as they began the ordeal of registering. Dismal faces of freshmen looked hopefully to upperclassmen for encouragement, but there was none to be found. They, too, were confused and in need of encouragement.

Yes, registration wouldn't be registration without problems. This freshman, unacquainted with the dilemma of registration, asks, "Why not?"

Combo appearances at outdoor dances are not rare. Fatigued Harry Avery seems to be the center of attraction at the Maintenance Building parking lot.

On Thursdays, ECC students eagerly scan copies of the EAST CAROLINIAN; but, with the coming of Winter Quarter, the newspaper went semi-weekly and the scanning went from Thursdays to both Tuesdays and Fridays.

With cries of "We want out," female students cheered on the demonstration staged by the male students following the failure of the Bond Issue.

... Complete With

"Vote for a better North Carolina" was the theme of the college-wide Bond Issue Rally held prior to the November 7th voting. At this rally, ECC students were told what they could do to influence votes that would, in the end, provide East Carolina College with better facilities for the near future. The work of East Carolina and of other state-supported colleges here in the state was to no avail, however, for the issue was defeated. As a result of the failure of the Issue, disappointment of local students was shown by a peaceful demonstration that led to a parade from the dormitories on College Hill Drive to the downtown area where President Jenkins spoke on the Issue he had so strongly believed in. With T.V. and Radio equipment following, the male students marched back to the dormitories.

Prize winners at the Roaring Twenties Dance were typical of the success of the "flapper" event.

ECC students prove their disappointment in the defeat of the Bond Issue with a peaceful demonstration lasting into the "wee hours" of the morning.

Nightly Dances, Bond Issue And Demonstration . . .

In support of the Bond Issue, East Carolina students participated in the Torch Marathon which was run from the coast across the state.

Twisting napkins and sticking them in chicken wire is the first thing that comes to one's mind when thinking about homecoming. Delta-sigs, Ronnie Neal, and Stuart Odham prepare their prize-winning float for the parade.

Upon failing to fulfill his engagement, Chuck Jackson, of "I Don't Wanna Cry" fame, was hung by ECC students in effigy.

Homecoming was different this year. A brilliant blue sky, filled with fluffy, cotton-white clouds, welcomed students and alumni to one of the most colorful and spectacular of ECC Homecomings, October 7th. The parade, bringing in the "Dixie Days," got underway Saturday morning, following a pep rally and bonfire the previous Thursday night and concerts on Friday night. In pre-game ceremonies, lovely Jean Lasater, a Lambda Chi sponsor, was crowned Homecoming Queen. Then the 22-20 ECC win over Elon typified the success of the 1961 Homecoming.

... And A Dixie-Style

Vivacious Jean Lasater was crowned Homecoming Queen 1961 by former Queen, Ellie Speckman.

A coincidence? At the University of Miami, the Theta Chi's have an annual boat burning. East Carolina burned its own this year, but accidentally. The Theta Chi float burned, by accident, during the Homecoming Parade.

Our fight for a victorious Homecoming was evidenced by the appearance of the Confederate cannon and Rebel soldiers.

Cotton-white clouds, Rebel uniforms, and Confederate mules—all were characteristic of our "Dixie Days" Homecoming.

Homecoming That Actually Began . . .

Crowds lined the stadium, complete with meaningful Rebel flags, to view ECC's victory over Elon. These excited spectators became the largest group in history to ever view a local athletic event.

Homecoming 1961, through . . .

. . . the eyes of the spectator.

It was more than another Carolinas Conference game. It was Homecoming—a combination of the Cannes Film Festival, the Pamplona bull fights and a political convention. Old grads, their hair lines receding and their girths swollen comically, returned to soak up the nostalgia of happy campus days. Football—real teeth jarring knocking—was evident as East Carolina and Elon slugged each other for sixty minutes, resulting in a 22-20 victory for ECC.

Lovely Southern Belles made the Homecoming festivities attractive as well as exciting.

Music, provided by Maynard Ferguson and band, proved to be quite popular with the students attending the Homecoming Dance.

Following the "Big Game," open house was held in the College Union with Jimmy Taylor and Carol McCullen serving as host and hostess.

Alice Ann Horne and Adolphus Spain, alumni of East Carolina, were but two who joined ECC students and former students at the Homecoming Dance on Saturday night.

Homecoming did not end with the victorious game with Elon. To some, there followed many hours of twirling around the ballroom floor of Wright Building; whereas, to others, fraternity and sorority parties were on the agenda. No matter what the Saturday night plans, however, Homecoming 1961 ended with many memories of the pep rally, parade, concerts, game, and dance that made up this long-to-be-remembered ECC festivity.

Cheek to cheek they danced at ECC's successful Homecoming Dance held in Wright Auditorium.

After an appearance in Wright Auditorium, Josh White and son headed for the Pika house for another appearance.

Pika's and Sigma Nu's combined efforts to promote a football game with their "brothers" as stars, in support of the memorial stadium being erected on campus.

Pep rallies just would not be complete without the ever-loval cheerleaders.

Crowds lined the ECC tennis courts for pep rallies, as East Carolina moved to victory.

Kappa Alpha's did their part in making the Sorority All-Sing a success.

Tri-Sig Polly Bunting led her sisters to victory at the All-Sing.

... A Year
Of
Fun, Knowledge,
And Experience.

Rain, an umbrella, and photographer Skip Wamsley at football games provided an excellent subject for the BUCCANEER photographer.

SNOW . . . an unusual and exciting sight on the East Carolina campus came during the month of January. For the first few days of snow flurries, a winter wonderland reigned. But when the first touches of ice were added to the streets and sidewalk, ECC students were wishing it would vanish quickly. The campus was bathed unnaturally in the white, cloudy substance, and it appeared that a flick of a wand had moved East Carolina into the far reaches of the North. Snowmen were built and many a snowball fight held. Winter was the season for erratic weather, varied entertainment, and for . . . SNOW.

Snows came, but a few, straggling students still "hit the road" for classes.

Winter

Modern facilities of Joyner Library make an attractive picture for BUCCANEER Photographer Fred Robertson.

Up and down steps, day after day, is the trail for those students having classes in Austin.

From One Extreme To Another . . .

The bitter, cold wind was often an inducement to take that "last cut" and remain in the dorm, but some headed for classes and the soda shop without further hesitation.

With temperatures hitting an extreme of seven degrees one day and another extreme of seventy degrees the same week, students did not know what to plan for outside recreation.

East Carolina set a record by giving 264 pints of blood in a foodmobile visit to the campus.

Diana Canady was but one enjoying the snow when she should have been in class.

Skiing behind cars was one of the favorite pastimes of the more energetic and athletic male students.

. . . And Snow . . .

The College Union is famous for its traditional Christmas Decorating Party. Many engage in the fun and, at the same time, add to the Christmas spirit for the many who visit the CU daily.

Even in snow weather, the path from soda shop to dorm and dorm to soda shop is a well-worn one.

... Coming Twice In One Week, ...

Many coeds, especially the pretty Sue Little, fell prey to the male pranksters on campus as the first, light snow covered the ground and trees.

The comforts of home, rareness of study, and "no date" are evidenced by this picture of Kenneth Carroway.

Students were amazed by the frozen fountain during the week of the snow.

East Carolina Cheerleaders, Lillian Moye. Head; Barbara Rose; Marsha Whitworth; Camilla Henderson; Linda Whitworth; Jim Thompson and Carol Rankin, added that little extra touch and encouragement as they yelled for ECC victories.

With the coming of the snow, the beauty of our campus was enhanced.

"Spider" Crocker presided during the REBEL sponsored "poetry reading with a jazz background."

... Brought Ferrante And Teicher, Robert Shaw

FERRANTE & TEICHER

WILLIAM MORRIS AGENCY

Ferrante and Teicher "flipped their lids" in the two hour concert of merri-ment and melody when they visited ECC in February.

This organ became the center of attraction that led to many "oohs" and "ahs" following the appearance of the Robert Shaw Chorale.

Even college students found that a good excuse to get away from studies was the snow and friends who yelled. "Oh, come on, we'll study later."

It's no snowman, though several could be seen on campus during January. It's Tony Bowen with Camilla Henderson's snowball plastered in his face.

Jim Scott and Woody Harrington found Wright windows the perfect place for bombarding passers-by.

Chorale, And The Annual APO Sponsored . . .

The whiteness of the snow, the blackness of the night, and the silverness of the lights produced the colorful effect found in this photo of College Hill Drive.

Though the two snowfalls dominated campus life photographs during the Winter Quarter, the season was full of other events too numerous to mention. Temperature, however, did determine, to an extent, many of the activities taking place. Several days, students could be seen wearing boots, top coats, scarves, and ear muffs; whereas, a few days, even bermudas could be found. Temperatures varied; so did the activities. This was the season of Christmas which reminded students of the joy of giving. This was the season students demonstrated their civic-mindedness when they gave blood during the local drive and staged a dance for funds going to crippled children. This was the season Ferrante and Teicher and the Robert Shaw Chorale gave delightful, campus performances. And, this was the season of exciting basketball games, poetry and jazz sessions, ring sales, and, of course—SNOW.

An East Carolina tradition—tall girls get the bottom post office boxes and the short girls get the top ones.

Activity was great as Mr. Lee Blackwell, Balfour representative, displayed the ring samples for those interested in purchasing a college class ring.

... White Ball.

January 19, 1962, marked the date of one of the largest social events of the year when Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, sponsored its annual White Ball. With all proceeds going to the Crippled Children's Fund, a queen was chosen by a penny-a-vote basis. Each organization was invited to submit an entry for the Queen. From sixteen candidates entered, Julia Payne, sponsored by social fraternity Theta Chi, won the coveted crown.

Queen Julia Payne smiles happily as she accepts the royal role of White Ball Queen.

A huge crowd danced under the White Ball to the music of Jimmy Burns and his band.

Estatic Julia steps forward after being announced Queen of the Ball.

APO Sweetheart, Diana Foster, and Jerry Cummings are introduced prior to the crowning of the queen.

A traditional part of the Ball is the presentation of the APO brothers and their dates.

Beauties

Known for its lovely Southern Belles, the South each year produces many outstanding beauties including the 1962 Miss America, selected from our own state just this year. East Carolina is no exception: for, a glance through the following pages proves that the college has its share of beauty and personality. These lovely ladies are the special people who have won a well-deserved place in the world of beauty. However, this is but a small portion of those deserving to be featured in the Beauties section. East Carolina is fortunate to have, studying within her portals, Miss Norma Carole Summerlin, Miss Barbara Ann Ellis, Miss Julaine Cannon, and many more coeds well-known as beauty queens.

Buccaneer Queen Finalists

Miss Patricia Kivette

This lovely brunette is a Sophomore Spanish major from Sanford. A tennis, swimming, and horseback riding enthusiast, Miss Patricia Hunt Kivette plans to attend American Airlines School in July, and, two months later, assume the role of an airline stewardess. Well-known on campus for her beauty, Pat is often called upon to represent various organizations in beauty contests. She was Delta Sigma Pi's sponsor for Homecoming Queen, Circle K Club's representative for Valentine Queen, and now Pi Kappa Phi's successful sponsor for BUCCANEER Queen.

Miss Judy Murphy

From an array of forty-four campus beauties, a queen and these three runner-ups were chosen to reign over the 1962 BUCCANEER. Considering facial beauty alone, a committee of students and faculty advisor chose the finalists from portraits submitted by the entrants. Local judges, consisting of James I. Gilliland, Stuart Savage, and Sam T. White II, then named the 1962 BUCCANEER Queen and her court on the basis of "freshness and naturalness of features, sincere smile, photogenic face, sparkling eyes, and abounding enthusiasm" as displayed in the portraits submitted. To these girls go the distinction of being the outstanding contestants in the competition for the BUCCANEER QUEEN.

A coed of perfect features and astounding beauty, Miss Judy Murphy finds piano and singing among her many likes. Hailing from Youngsville, she is a Voice major of Freshman classification. This is not the first beauty contest in which Judy has been quite successful, for she was a semi-finalist in the Miss Washington, D. C., pageant, which is just a step away from the coveted Miss America crown. This popular brunette hopes to enter some phase of the entertainment world upon graduation from East Carolina.

Miss Karen Kast

Chi Omega's sponsor and sister, Miss Karen Kast is a Sophomore student from Jacksonville. This outstanding beauty is an active participant in college activities, as evidenced by her being treasurer of the Sophomore Class. A Grammar Grade Education major, she plans a career in the teaching profession upon graduation. This petite blonde is surely deserving of being a finalist in the competition for BUCCANEER Queen.

Buccaneer Queen

Beauty reigns supreme in the selection of the BUC-CANEER Queen. Personable Miss Nancy Lockwood, after going successfully through two rounds and two panels of judging, first members of the student body, then members of the Greenville Camera Club, was chosen as the fairest of the fair. This 1962 BUCCANEER Queen, a young lady of beauty, poise, and personality, was sponsored by the professional, business fraternity, Delta Sigma Pi. Competing against forty-four of her sister coeds, Nancy, a Sophomore English major is a resident of Hampton, Virginia. To one of such abounding beauty, the title and crown of BUCCANEER QUEEN is given.

Miss Nancy Lockwood

Homecoming Queen

Miss Jean Lasater

Selected by vote of the student body, East Carolina's Homecoming Queen this year is a Primary Education major from Sanford. Miss Jean Lasater, a member of Chi Omega Social Sorority, won the coveted title because of her popularity on campus. Before winning the title this year, Jean was the Homecoming sponsor for Delta Sigma Pi. Lambda Chi Alpha sponsored this lovely miss chosen for Homecoming Queen in the Fall. She has also represented the college in the annual Azalea Festival as an East Carolina Princess. An honor attained by few coeds, Jean now reigns as the Carolina's Conference Basketball Tournament Queen.

Jean Lasater displays the "friendly smile" that helped her win other titles on campus, as well as the coveted Homecoming Queen crown.

Summer School Queen

Crowned at the traditional Summer School Ball, Miss Sallie Ann Wallace is a senior, Primary Education major from Greenville. Selected by popular vote of students attending summer sessions of the college, she was chosen for beauty and personality alone. Sallie, sponsored by her sorority, Kappa Delta, is known as one of the many campus queens at East Carolina College.

Moments after her crowning, the ecstatic Sallie Ann Wallace poses for photographers.

Miss Sally Wallace

Military Queen

This congenial, young lady who calls Durham home, is recognized for her many titles, both as a majorette and as a beauty queen. Laverne was elected by the Air Force Cadets and officially crowned during the annual Military Ball as Military Queen. A sophomore, Physical Education major and an Alpha Phi sister, she simultaneously holds the Miss Greenville crown which entitles her to participate in the Miss North Carolina Pageant held this past summer.

This popular and attractive Miss Greenville is frequently called upon to don her formals for public appearances.

Dormitory Sponsors For Homecoming

MISS CAROL WHITE
Cotten

MISS BARBARA JENKINS
Fleming

For Homecoming festivities and competition for Homecoming Queen, each dormitory on campus selects a lovely miss to represent it. These favorites were chosen; and, each competed for the coveted title. As dormitory sponsors, they, then, composed the Queen's court and dressed as southern belles for the Dixie Days celebration.

Marshals

Commencement exercises officially begin the long line of duties attached to the coveted position of an East Carolina College Marshal. With election to this post, the sixteen coeds must accept the responsibility of capably representing the college at public functions throughout the year. The success of the functions can definitely be affected by the manner in which the marshals serve. Therefore, it is evident that the following girls were chosen, for their dignity, personality, and attractiveness, to the esteemed and honorary posts of marshals.

College Marshals

Each year a campus-wide election is held to choose sixteen girls to serve the following year in marshal positions. These are the girls who usher, pass programs, and welcome the public to various civic and college activities held on campus. With friendly smiles, attractive faces, and warm hellos, the personalities that won these girls the honorary posts are evident.

Soon after being elected to the positions of marshals, they must elect from among themselves one to serve as chief. Duties are then assumed for all commencement activities and those taking place the following year.

Who's Who

Twenty-nine years ago, an idea was conceived of creating one national basis of recognition for college students that would be democratic. After two years of research, correspondence, travel, and interviews with college administrators, students and organizations, WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES was introduced. In the following pages, WHO'S WHO will recognize the outstanding leaders of East Carolina College.

National recognition based on scholarship, leadership, participation in educational and extracurricular activities, general citizenship, and promise for future usefulness is awarded each person nominated and accepted for WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES. Selected by a campus committee, each of these thirty-seven nominees were known as outstanding leaders while attending East Carolina College. Here are the men and women whose achievements have merited this recognition.

Who's Who Among Students In American Universities And Colleges

Everyone knows Walker Lee Allen for his versatility. A business major, he has performed on both basketball and golf teams while here at the college. Walker has held membership in the Circle K Club, Sigma Pi Alpha, honorary geography fraternity, Phi Sigma Pi of which he has served as secretary and vice-president, the Disciple Student Fellowship, and the AFROTC.

Walker Lee Allen

Thelbert Arthur

While attending Campbell College, Thelbert Arthur was active in class, dormitory and student government. Coming to East Carolina College, he once again resumed his interest in legislative affairs by serving on the SGA and as vice-president of his dormitory. Throughout his college career, academic standing was not forgotten, for he was continually listed on either the Honor Roll or the Dean's List. A social studies major, he is from Beaufort.

Zuill Bailey

Active in student government, music, dramatics, and AFROTC, Zuill Bailey is a senior music major from Bishopville, S. C. He served as vice-president of the Chapel Choir, secretary and vice-president of the honorary music fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha, president of the College Choir, and has participated in "Kiss Me Kate," "Annie Get Your Gun," and "South Pacific."

Coming from Fremont, James Ballance has been widely known for his presidency of the English Club and English fraternity, Sigma Tau Delta. Needless to say, Jim's major is English. Jim also widened his campus participation by serving on the staff of WWWS Campus Radio for three years and by obtaining membership in the honorary fraternity, Phi Sigma Pi.

Record collecting and sports are the hobbies of this outstanding business student from Roduco. Karen Brown has been most active in Phi Beta Lambda, holding three offices in the organization, including a state office, and Phi Omega Pi, in which she held two offices. This "Miss Future Business Executive," a title won at a state meeting of the Future Business Leaders of America, also has participated many times in campus beauty contests, including sponsor for Homecoming Queen.

Who's Who

The Circle K Club has always been one of Benny Bowes' prime interests. Consequently, he has served as treasurer, secretary, and president of this organization. Everyone has seen Benny display his athletic ability on the basketball court. His reputation as an excellent player secured him the position of co-captain for the 1961-1962 season. A Business major from Burlington, Benny was elected, also, as treasurer of the Senior Class.

A Psychology major, Wilbur Allen Castellow has greatly excelled in his major field. As reporter of Phi Sigma Pi and treasurer of the Psychology Club, Wilbur showed his outstanding traits of dependability. Sports also held the attention of Wilbur, for he played on the East Carolina Baseball Team for two years.

Jayne Chandler

This Suffolk, Virginia, student is extremely well-known on campus for her Student Government activities. Jayne Chandler acted as chairman of the Homecoming Committee for two years and served on various other ones, including the Budget Committee. A member of Chi Omega, Jayne is an English major. Many times Jayne has represented the school at various conferences.

Student Government Association secretary, college marshal, Chi Omega social sorority—all are activities participated in by Nancy Coggins. Friendly “hellos” and warm smiles are characteristic of Nancy as she goes through her busy days. This Primary Education major from Rocky Mount was also a member of the Discipline Committee, Dean’s Advisory Council, Homecoming Committee, and Summer School SGA. The future of this young lady lies in the field of education.

Nancy Coggins

Alvin Dunkle's specialty is graphic art. This WHO'S WHO member is recognized on campus for his exceptional artistic talent. Al was a member of Delta Phi Delta, honorary art fraternity, and the REBEL staff. Hailing from St. Petersburg, Florida, he has contributed greatly, while a student here at East Carolina, to the Art Department.

Alvin Dunkle

A smiling face and pleasing personality always await the person who meets Glennis Edwards on campus. A Business major from Windsor, Glennis has served as president of Wilson Hall and historian of Pi Omega Pi, honorary business fraternity on campus. In addition, she is noted for her active participation in Phi Beta Lambda, the Women's Judiciary, and the Student Government Association.

Reginald Edgerton

Hailing from Oriental, Victor Reginald Edgerton came to East Carolina as an active participant in physical education activities. Reggie, an ardent swimmer, has served as president of the Physical Education Club, manager of the ECC Swimming Team, and coach of the Greenville High Swimming Team. In June, 1962, Reggie plans to enter graduate school at the State University of Iowa.

Glennis Edwards

his young lady is known on campus for her versatility, evidenced by being editor of the EAST CAROLINIAN a Mathematics major, Patsy Elliott, because of her realistic and Student Government Association activities, been a delegate to the Associated Collegiate Press meetings held in Miami and Chicago and the National Student Congress held at the University of Wisconsin. A Omega sister, Patsy has been a member of the Entertainment Committee, Dean's Advisory Council, Sigma Pi Nu, and Math Club.

Patsy Elliott

ome Economics is the vocation which Betty Frazier has chosen. She has served as both president and vice-president of the Home Economics Club. A member of Alpha Delta Pi, Henderson girl has also excelled in Student Government affairs. As president of her freshman dormitory, she acted as a delegate to the Dean's Advisory Council and the Women's Judiciary. Betty's other honors include being elected college marshal and co-chairman of the annual Greek weekend.

Betty Rose Frazier

Walter Faulkner

Photography, travel, and music are among the interests of this WHO'S WHO member. Walter C. Faulkner, known on campus for his active participation in publications and Delta Sigma Pi, has been campus life editor, associate editor, and editor of the BUCCANEER and chairman of publicity and public relations for his fraternity. In addition, this Henderson junior has been a delegate to both the National School Yearbook Association and the Associated Collegiate Press conferences held in New York and Miami Beach.

Dorothy Flake

As president of Pi Omega Pi, honorary business fraternity, Dorothy Flake has shown her leadership qualities. Both an English and Business major, Dorothy has served as secretary and president of Wilson Hall, secretary of the English Club, and on the Women's Judiciary. A member of Tau Sigma, honorary fraternity, Dorothy is a resident of Greenville. This leader and scholar is surely deserving of the WHO'S WHO honor.

Spencer Gaylord

Baseball has always held the interest of this WHO'S WHO member. Spencer Gaylord is a Physical Education major who hails from Greensboro. Spencer has also been quite active in fraternal affairs. He has served his fraternity, Lambda Chi Alpha, as pledge-master and the Inter-Fraternity Council as secretary.

Camilla Henderson, a Primary Education major and resident of Greenville, has been an active person in campus affairs. The former Chief Marshal has displayed her leadership and dependability in her numerous extra-curricular activities. She has served her sorority as pledge secretary, sister corresponding secretary, and recording secretary, in addition to representing the Alpha Delta Pi's at the national convention held at Pasadena, California, in 1961. This popular "miss" was elected as Homecoming sponsor and a White Ball sponsor during her memorable college career.

Camilla Henderson

A former student at the University of Chicago, the United States Military Academy, and the Julliard School of Music, Pete Johl has gained recognition in the musical field. Peter, a native of Groton, Connecticut, has been continuously active in all phases of the musical program here at ECC. He is a member of Phi Mu Alpha and plans to obtain a master's degree before teaching. Peter also plans to try-out for a Broadway musical production. In addition to music, Peter likes to collect art and to cook.

Peter Johl

Don Graziano

This "Terry Sanford Scholar" from Wilmington, is known for his legislative and judicial activities at East Carolina. Don Graziano has been chairman of the Me Judiciary, vice-president of his Sophomore Class and Psychology Club, and representative to the Dean's Advisory Council and the Discipline Committee. Don is a member of Sigma Rho Phi.

Nick Hilgert

In the football stadium, Nicholas Hilgert was a very outstanding performer. This Physical Education major from Elizabeth City played football all four years here at East Carolina. A member of Lambda Chi Alpha, Nick plans to enter the Marine Corps upon graduation. After his military service, Nick is looking forward to a teaching career.

Honorary fraternities are among Betty Lane's outstanding activities. As a member of Chi Beta Phi and Kappa Delta Pi, this Mathematics major has served the campus well. However, Betty was not content to stop there. She served as a marshal, on the handbook committee, on the Dean's Advisory Council, as a senator, and as president of her social sorority, Chi Omega. For such noteworthy activities, honors are certainly deserving. Consequently, Betty was the recipient of the "Outstanding Freshman Mathematics Award."

Betty Lane

A Mathematics major from Pleasant Hill, this WHO'S WHO member plans to enter a professional job upon graduation. James Massey has been treasurer of both the Circle K Club and Phi Sigma Pi. He also is an active participant in Chi Beta Phi and the Mathematics Club. This honor roll student has athletics as his hobby.

James Massey

Numerous honors in the field of music have been awarded to Tasker Polk. This Warrenton native has studied with East Carolina's Dr. Robert Carter and Dr. Rudolph Ganz of the Chicago Musical College. As winner of the 1961 Washington International Bach Festival, this future concert pianist received a gold medal, a cash award, and an opportunity for his concert debut in Washington, D. C. Future plans of Tasker Polk include fulfilling his ambition of being a concert pianist.

Tasker Polk

Mary Nell Shaw

Jean Lasater

Sanford is the hometown of this lovely lass who has become one of the most renowned beauties in Eastern North Carolina. Jean reigned as Homecoming Queen, Azalea Festival Princess, and North State Basketball Tournament Queen. A member of Chi Omega, she has displayed leadership, personality, and popularity by being elected to the coveted position of a college marshal.

Rebecca Murphrey

This Snow Hill native is known on campus for her outstanding work in Student Government affairs. Rebecca has served as president of Garrett Hall and vice-president of Alpha Phi. Photography and reading are the hobbies of this Education major. Upon graduation in the Spring, Rebecca Murphrey plans to teach in the grammar grades.

Greek activities have been the main interest of Mary Nell Shaw, a sister of Alpha Omicron Pi and president of the Panhellenic Council. This Grammar Education major was a member of the Women's Recreation Association and the Young Women's Christian Association. A representative to the Dean's Advisory Council, she is from Atkinson.

This future first grade teacher has been a successful attribute to the East Carolina College campus. Sara Smiley's work on the Panhellenic Council, the Student Government Association, and the BUCCANEER is noteworthy. A native of Greenville, this Kappa Delta sister enjoys cooking and water skiing. Scholarship was not forgotten either, for Sara continually was listed on the Honor Roll or Dean's List.

Sara Smiley

Otis Strother

Bobby Jo Sutton, a Home Economics major, was awarded the Rachel Spivey Memorial Trophy for her excellence in this field. A sister of Kappa Delta social sorority, this LaGrange native has also served as president of Cotten Hall and as a college marshal. Bobbie Jo is now teaching Home Economics at North Duplin High School, following graduation from East Carolina last year.

Bobbie Jo Sutton

Student Government Association work has proved to be Otis Strother's role at East Carolina College. He has proven himself quite capable of serving as SGA President this year. In previous years, his leadership was also evident, for he served as vice-president of both his Freshman and Sophomore Classes and president of the Men's Judiciary. Otis is a Music major and a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity. This Circle K Club member has also been quite active in his major department; he has served in the band, orchestra and Brass Choir.

An Honor Roll student from Vanceboro, James Taylor is widely-known on campus for his capacity as president of the College Union. Jimmy, as he is known by his friends, served as treasurer of Pi Omega Pi, an honorary business fraternity on campus, and a member of the Dean's Advisory Council. Jimmy plans to teach commercial courses in North Carolina public schools, upon graduation in the Spring.

James Taylor

Barbara Tripp

As president of Chi Beta Phi, honorary science and mathematics fraternity, Barbara Tripp has proved her mastery of science. This senior from Bethel was the recipient of two scholarships, secretary of the Science Club, and chairman of the Science Journal. In addition, Barbara served as both vice-president and president of the North Carolina Collegiate Academy.

Marcelle Vogel

Marcelle Vogel, a Music major from New Bern, has been an active member of the College Choir, Chapel Choir, and other musical organizations. Publications and Student Government activities have also been Marcelle's forte. This friendly "miss" served as editor of THE KEY, associate editor of the EAST CAROLINIAN, and a staff member of the BUCCANEER. A Kappa Delta sister, she is a member of both the Dean's Advisory Council and the Publications Board. Marcelle has also served on the Student National Education Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Music Educators National Conference, and as vice-president of Jarvis Hall.

Becky Wayne

All activities in the realm of sports and physical education hold the interest of Becky Wayne, a WHO'S WHO member from New Bern. She was secretary of the Physical Education Club and treasurer of the Women's Recreation Association. Then, too, the Aquanymphs elected her to serve as their president. Becky's plans for the future include teaching Health and Physical Education courses in one of the high schools of North Carolina.

Walter Worthington

Industrial Arts is the chosen field of this WHO'S WHO member. In this field, Walter Worthington has been extremely active. A member of Theta Chi, of which he was Ritual Chairman, Walter is also known for active participation in the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps. In this field, he has been a group commander and Drill Team commander. Immediately upon graduation, Walter plans to enter the Air Force with a commission.

Robert Ward

Hailing from Greensboro, Robert Ward, better known on campus as Bob, has been very outstanding in Student Government work. He has served on the Budget Committee, first, as a member-at-large, then, as assistant treasurer, and, during his senior year, as treasurer and chairman of the committee. A member of Lambda Chi Alpha, this Business major has been on the Inter-Fraternity Council for two years and an active member of the Circle K Club. Upon graduation, he plans to accept a commission in the United States Marine Corps.

Buddy Weiss

As president of Pi Kappa Alpha and the Inter-Fraternity Council, Buddy Weiss has exhibited his leadership qualities. A Geography major, Buddy came to East Carolina from Richmond, Virginia. Since coming to the college, he has been extremely active in the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps and the Arnold Air Society. He plans to make a career of the Air Force.

OTIS STROTHER, III
President

A more representative student government has been established here at East Carolina, due to the efforts of SGA president, Otis Strother. His administration was highlighted by a general reorganization of the SGA and the Constitution. In addition, a new and superior method of handling funds was developed and put into practice.

In 1961-62, the SGA entertainment series proved to be the best in its history. The Highwaymen, Josh White, the Les McCann Trio, the Columbus Boys Choir and many more notables in the entertainment world appeared on the campus. This series was designed to give each student an opportunity to see and hear many different types of entertainment.

As usual, Homecoming was the most memorable event of the year. The "Dixie Days" theme was depicted by colorful floats, costumes, and Confederate battle flags.

Women's Judiciary

Purpose of the Judiciaries is to handle the disciplinary problems arising on campus concerning both men and women students that are referred to the committees by the respective deans. Composed of officers elected in Spring elections, members-at-large elected at the same time, and presidents of each of the dormitories on campus, the Judiciaries have precedence over most discipline matters. All problems of a serious nature come under the Discipline Committee, of which the two Judiciary chairmen are members.

Summer School SGA

Linda Manning, Nancy Coggins, Otis Strother, Dr. James H. Tucker, Mary John Best, Tommy Mallison, Dave Nanney, and Standing, Merle Summers, Dinah Sharpe, Dave Haskins, Barbara Ryan and Ward Simmons.

Summer School Student Government Association provided a training ground for three of the officers assuming duties September 1, 1961. Otis Strother, Merle Summers, and Nancy Coggins, all officers of the regular session Student Government Association, served the Summer School program in official capacities. With such capable leaders, the Summer School SGA proved to be the beginning of a successful program that was to last into the regular SGA activities. Included in the notable activities of the association were the sponsoring of a chartered bus to the Lost Colony presentation honoring ECC in August, sending three delegates to the University of Wisconsin for a student government conference, and having Count Basie as a portion of the entertainment series.

Highlighting the Summer School SGA program was the annual Summer School Ball which resulted in the crowning of the new Summer School Queen, Sally Wallace.

Nancy Coggins, treasurer; Otis Strother, president; Tommy Mallison, vice-president; Mary John Best, secretary.

Publications

Midnight! All classes had long been over; students and faculty had long gone home; and a quiet hush had descended upon the college. The entire campus was shrouded in darkness with the exception of the publications' offices. Past the fountain and up the stairs of Wright, past Cotten and the mall and up the stairs of Austin, three offices were still flooded with light. These were the publications' offices and within their doors were the people who compose the staffs, often working into the early hours of the morning searching for new ideas, new concepts in photography, and new words for writing copy.

The Buccaneer

Stressing the coastal environment and the spirit of East Carolina College, the 1962 BUCCANEER offers a recollection of the school's fifty-fifth year of existence. In the attempt to adequately represent all phases of our college life, each individual section of this edition was planned to be a feature within itself.

Using as the motif—we who serve, where we serve and how we serve, the BUCCANEER was published through the combined efforts of approximately sixty staff members during the regular school year.

Since its first appearance on December 19, 1925, the EAST CAROLINIAN has been the official news organ for the campus. Always a student publication the paper has served the student body as a weekly for twelve years.

This year marks the debut of a twice weekly, an attempt to maintain high standards of journalistic techniques and to present to the campus a newspaper worthy of being published at East Carolina.

Dedicated to good standards of journalism, the EAST CAROLINIAN strives for accurate presentation of the news with its purpose as a communicative organ: to inform, to educate, to stimulate, and to make men think.

College Union

This hearthstone of East Carolina College, with recreational facilities for T.V., bridge, table tennis, and dancing, is open to all students interested in taking part in the activities or membership in the organization. Therefore, the affairs are handled for and by the students, giving them an opportunity to create activities of interest to them, the mass of students. Within the walls of the Union, students often find election polls, ring sales, armed forces recruitment, thus making it evident that the center of activity of East Carolina College is the College Union.

SCARLETT MILLER
Assistant Director, College Union
CYNTHIA MENDENHALL
Director, College Union

College Union — O

Serving as the "hearth-stone" of East Carolina College student life, the College Union offers a variety of activities planned to encourage social responsibility and leadership in our democracy. Founded on democratic principles—"Of, for, and by the Students"—every student enrolled in the college is automatically a member and is invited to join one of the numerous committees organized to plan recreational activities for the students. The College Union is more than an avenue to the Soda Shop, or a place for the male students to check the "cheesecake."

An appeal to a variety of recreational preferences, both active and passive, is made. The College Union provides T.V., bridge, table tennis, and dancing as everyday activities. The Union sponsors tournaments in many fields, and in addition, honors such groups as the foreign students on campus. Editing a monthly calendar of college events and maintaining an up-to-date bulletin board are but two of its many services to the student body.

The College Union is the "host" of your college; and through students interest and support, the Union will continue to grow and progress.

Those nightly dances, another of the many CU projects, are quite popular with the college set.

College Union Activities

Hours of hard work by Noel Tisdale, Harlan McCaskill, Wayne Cartwright, Eddie Harrington, and other College Union members were spent in compiling the annual student directory.

Bud Bulla finds that developing a skill in ping pong can be fun, especially with such recreational facilities as are available to local college students.

Even Jimmy Stewart, a professor in the Social Studies Department, finds enjoyment in the CU bridge parties.

Fine Arts

A creative dancer in colorful costume, a Beethoven Symphony, a fifty-member choir, a delightful comedy-musical, a competent actor, an accomplished pianist, imaginative lighting, effective staging, an enraptured audience, thunderous applause, a standing ovation, a well-deserved curtain call . . . all these elements contribute to the composition and appreciation of Fine Arts. On the East Carolina campus, where culture is as much a part of college life as organizations, every student may satisfy a taste for the best in music, drama, art. The following pages demonstrate the infinite variety of the ECC Fine Arts program.

JIMMY BURNS
Drum Major

MR. HERBERT CARTER
Director

ELIZABETH ROGERS
Head Majorette

"Bourbon Street Blues" was the theme as the ECC Marching Pirates formed a bourbon bottle during the 1961 Homecoming half-time.

Frank Smith, a trombonist, finds himself alone
during a football
half-time.

Marching Pirates Provide

Without the majorettes, the Marching Pirates would not be complete.

October 7, 1961, marked the debut of the Marching Pirates' portrait of a camera, following two weeks of rehearsals.

Appearing many times throughout the year in parades, football half-time shows, and special functions of the college, the Marching Pirates have proved to be a great asset to the college. The majorettes added sparkle and interest to the band on the ball field and street. Under the direction of Mr. Herbert Carter, this one hundred and ten piece band is open to the membership of those interested.

From ball game formations to block formations, the Marching Pirates fall-in for the local street parades.

On the stage or on the field, the drummers are second in command.

entertainment at Games and Parades

The traditional rendezvous of the Marching Pirates' half-time shows is the company fronts' fanfare.

Symphonic Band

MR. HERBERT CARTER
Director

Practice makes perfect. Rehearsals for the Symphonic Band are numerous.

The percussion section, often referred to as the conductor's right arm, often takes command.

East Carolina College Choir

MR. GORDON JOHNSON
Director

TERRY COLEY
Accompanist

Always striving for perfection, it is only natural that the College Choir is known for its excellence.

Frequently referred to as the "touring choir," the College Choir presents several concerts during the year and goes on an annual tour between Winter and Spring Quarters. Directed by Mr. Gordon Johnson, the choir's repertoire ranges from hymns and classics to light "pops" and folk music.

Segregation of male and female voices is best for rehearsal blending.

Mr. Donald Hayes, director, is shown with his right hand man, Dale Blackwell.

Directed by Mr. Donald Hayes, the College Orchestra is comprised of approximately sixty musicians and is representative of the students, professors, and townspeople. The orchestra provides a high level of entertainment, as well as presenting an annual Spring concert and a concerto program and assisting with several other performance groups in their productions.

East Carolina College Orchestra

Two two-somes rehearse with the orchestra in preparation for a concert.

MR. BARRY SHANK
Director

Varsity Band

Under the direction of Mr. Barry Shank, the Varsity Band presents a Winter concert and a lawn concert each May. Comprised of sixty instrumentalists from many other departments in addition to the Music Department, this band enlightens its audience with performances of light, classical, and "pops" music.

Chapel Choir

Offering inspirational music for the weekly chapel programs at the "Y" Hut, the Chapel Choir, directed by Dr. Carl Hjortsvang, also performs several other concerts each year. Membership of the sixty-two member choir is comprised both of music and non-music majors.

DR. CARL HJORTSVANG
Director

MR. CHARLES STEVENS
Director

Men's Glee Club

Combining the voices of approximately fifty male vocalists, the Men's Glee Club performs special programs for clubs and organizations throughout the year on campus and in the community. Directed by Mr. Charles Stevens, membership of this group is open to all men students. A carefully chosen quartet is an integral part of the club.

TEDDY GOSSET
Accompanist

College Singers

Composed of ten talented vocalists, the College Singers display their musical abilities through television and radio appearances, Christmas concerts each Yuletide season, and participation in special entertainment at club conventions and political rallies throughout Eastern North Carolina. With Mr. Dan Vornholt as conductor, the music of this popular group ranges from madrigals and folk music to light operatic songs.

MISS OLIVE HERRING
Accompanist

MR. DAN VORNHOLT
Director

MISS BEATRICE CHAUNCEY
Director

Under the direction of Miss Beatrice Chauncey, the Women's Glee Club performs a Spring concert and makes several television appearances during the year. Open to all college women, membership is maintained at approximately fifty voices, selected through auditions.

Women's Glee Club

Women's Chorus

Open to all interested women students, the Women's Chorus has been designed especially for students majoring in elementary education who desire further musical training. Directed by Miss Ruth Graber, this fifty voice chorus performs primarily at special college assemblies. Though training be the chief purpose, the chorus is known as an entertaining unit of the Music Department.

MISS RUTH GRABER
Director

The Collegians

JERRY LILES
Leader

Providing the East coast with music for listening and dancing, The Collegians has become a traditional college unit. Under the leadership of Jerry Liles, this well-known fourteen piece dance band performs music in the exciting "big-band" style. A combo from the group is frequently in demand for small dances, both on and off campus.

Jimmy Burns Orchestra

ROSE LINDSAY
Vocalist

Presenting a new sound of music on campus this year has been the Jimmy Burns Orchestra. Performing music in the style of Ray Anthony and Glenn Miller, this Jimmy Burns-led dance band has played at many campus functions and has entertained the under-privileged. The instrumentation of this band includes fifteen pieces plus a vocalist.

Antigone

In May, 1961, the East Carolina Playhouse presented a modern version of one of the great tragedies of all times. Sophocles wrote his "Antigone" about 442 B.C., and, in 1943, M. Jean Anouilh, France's greatest contemporary playwright, adapted the play in a modern language that still retains the full force of the intense desires and beliefs of Antigone and Creon, whose conflicting ideas about burial ritual form the basic theme of the drama.

Acting director of the playhouse, Claude Garren directed "Antigone." Even though the language of the play was contemporary, the Greek element of theatre and life was retained by the Greek dress and suggestive Greek setting.

Antigone (Lois Garren) and Creon (Dr. H. D. Rowe) are daughter and father in the play. The drama ends fatally for Antigone and grievously for Creon.

Antigone stubbornly submitted herself to arrest in defiance of her step-father's wishes.

Lighting for the production played a dominant part in creating color and mood for this one-set play.

As the guard (Ray Talloy) stands watch, Antigone accepts her condemnation with serene calmness.

South Pacific

"Some Enchanted Evening," Emile de Bacque (Peter Johl) and Ensign Nellie Forbush (Betsy Hancock) sang their way to popular acclaim by the standing room only audience.

Mary

Bloody (Marilyn Singleton) sings "Happy Talk" to Lt. Joseph Cable (Robert Christesen) and Lait (Carole Barham) on his second visit to Bali Ha'i.

The tough "Iron Belly" (Ben Avery) chews out Luther Billis (Bob Kornegay), but Luther, as usual, finds his way out of the jam.

One of the comic highlights of the "South Pacific" production was Billis' display of his "abdominal contortion" in the finale.

Nellie Forbush and Luther Billis make last minute plans for the "Honey Bun" number.

Settings reflecting the romantic atmosphere of the South Seas were designed by Paul R. Minnis and executed by Tommy Hull. Due to the adaptability of these stage settings, the twenty-three scenes moved with a rapid pace not usually found in college productions. Bali Ha'i, re-created on the backdrop, under mystical lighting, provided moments of ultimate delight for the audience.

Curtains and a standing ovation in recognition of the professional quality of the production were well-deserved by the large cast, ranging from thrill-seeking sailors to native Polynesians.

Auntie Mame

With Minnie Gaster in the title role, "Auntie Mame," resounding Broadway hit, was widely acclaimed by critics alike. Three performances in the McGinnis Auditorium and one at Camp Lejeune made this hilarious show one of the biggest the Playhouse has ever presented.

The play presents Miss Gaster as an eccentric, whimsical, courageous and picturesque woman engaged in raising an orphan nephew and in a number of other odd adventures.

Action of the play takes Auntie Mame through the roaring 20's, the depression, a marriage, and then widowhood, but all a period of indomitable gaiety. Whether this lovable mad-cap is rolling in money or trying awkwardly to be a salesgirl in a department store, she is still full of quips and gags; and the action hurries at a merry pace. Through eighteen years and an equal number of stunning costumes, the play followed Mame and her nephew through one situation after another.

Auntie Mame (Minnie Gaster) and Brian O'Bannon (Jim Rockey) engage in one of their "poetry times." The two are in the process of writing Mame's memoirs, while trumpy Agnes Gooch, the secretary, (Rachel Marshbourne) looks on in amazement with her "Dr. Pepper."

Auntie Mame's nephew (Thomas Jackson) reads a letter from his aunt. While in school at Runson, Patrick received quite a few odd gifts from Mame, including a Buddha from India.

The parents of Patrick's fiancé, Doris and Claude Upson (Ruth Lambie and Dr. George Cook) were visited by Mame at "Upson's Downs."

Mame's visit down South with Beauregard Pickett Burnside (Bill Rackley) to meet the family proved to be one of the brightest moments in the show. The hunt at the climax of the visit turned into a riot for everyone and a husband for Mame.

Macy's floor walker (Jerry Higgins) becomes upset when the customer (Frank Taylor, Loretta Foster, and Peggy Bock) cannot find Mame.

Mame's parties were always frequented by interesting people. At this particular one, Patrick arrived with the maid (Mollie Lewis). The lavish costuming, and unique setting is visible in this scene.

As the play comes to a close, Auntie Mame is seen leading the son of Patrick and Pegeen (Eloise Hewitt) upstairs to pack for a trip to India.

Another party, with guests including Mr. Babcock (Howard Mallard) and Lindsey Woolsey (Carroll Norwood), climaxed with Mame's new drink, "Flaming Mames."

Although the entire comedy was galvanized by the volatile Auntie Mame, there was in the play a number of other vivid characters, totaling almost fifty. With such a number of actors, this made the production have one of the largest casts of any non-musical comedy of recent times on campus.

The play was directed by Dr. Ralph H. Rives. Costumes were made by Lois Garren; and the far-ranging settings were designed by Paul Minnis and Donald Sexauer.

The entire cast, including technical workers, totaling over fifty persons, made "Auntie Mame" the success that critics acclaimed as the "hit of the year."

The Glass Menagerie

Laura (Sue Taylor), the crippled daughter who is sensitive and shy, looks for solace in her collection of glass animals.

Tennessee Williams' "The Glass Menagerie" brought to East Carolina College a play long-to-be-remembered. The circus-like music combined with unusual lighting to create the mood that was called for by the playwright. A mystical quality was added to the production due to the use of a simple setting. "The Glass Menagerie" tells the story of a fading Southern mother, played by Lucille Dew, living in an apartment facing a back alley in St. Louis, trying to do the best she can for her two children, but succeeding only in destroying every vestige of hope, beauty, and joy in their lives.

Tom (Ben Avery), Amanda (Lucille Dew), and the gentleman caller (Tommy Hull) complete the quartet, along with Laura, of the drama's characters.

Robin Hood

Sponsored by the American Association of University Women, the Playhouse presented "Robin Hood" as its first production of the year. A tour of schools in the Pitt County area was planned and executed by the association. Tommy Hull, an ECC student, served as director of the very successful children's program.

Denard Harris headed the cast as the adventurous Robin Hood. In this scene, he is pictured with his mother (Eloise Hewitt) and his outlaw band.

The Fair at Nottingham created much excitement with an archery battle between Robin Hood and Prince John.

Clubs

In many ways, a person is always a student. Even before and after his formal education, he is in the process of learning. Much of this process involves the practical knowledge of dealing with others. East Carolina, along with its formal training, offers opportunities to the student to learn more about dealing with others through student organizations. Each of these twenty-two clubs provides something particular to its members. But no matter what the objective of any of these groups, the most important aspect is that of teaching its members to better understand the everyday task of dealing with their fellowmen.

Aquanymphs

Anne Cates, president; Jessie Divinoff, vice-president; Green, treasurer; Sandra Snyder, publicity chairman.

Consisting of women who are interested in water ballet and synchronized swimming, it is the aim of the Aquanymphs to develop its members' skills in precision swimming. In the spring of the year, the organization presented its traditional water show in the college pool. As with previous years, their swimming ability made the show its usual success.

Art Club

Rose Read, president; Patricia Waff, secretary; Alfred Nance, treasurer.

Composed of all art majors and of honorary members who profess an interest in art, the Art Club's enrollment has increased to one hundred and eighteen. This year art seminars have been held by the students in all of the major fields. Panels composed of outstanding students from each field and informal discussion are held by students attending the seminar. A Christmas Art Sale, composed of work done by art majors, was held on campus with all proceeds going to the Art Club treasury.

Association for Childhood Education

This Kiwanis-sponsored organization, the Circle K Club, is well-known on campus for its members. Membership is based upon leadership and college activities. Therefore, it is apparent that the purposes of the organization are to provide educational opportunities for worthy young men, to promote participation in group activities, and to encourage good fellowship and high scholarship. This active club sponsored a Confederate flag sale for the benefit of the new stadium fund, presented an annual Variety Show, and gave assistance to orphanages. Members of the Circle K Club attended a district convention in Winston-Salem and an international convention in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Bill Grubbs, secretary; Joe Flake, treasurer; Benny Bowes, president; Jim Massey, vice-president.

Marie Brewer, recording secretary; Brenda Nunery, vice-president; Ann Martin, president; Opal Hall, treasurer.

Seeking to bring into active cooperation all groups interested in children, and to promote desirable educational programs and practices in the elementary school, the Association for Childhood Education works for better education and well-being of all children. Activities of the organization for the year included selling mums for Homecoming, sponsoring college blazer sales, playing Santa to children at Kennedy Home, and presenting a portrait of Miss Coates to the Wahl-Coates Laboratory School in February.

Circle K Club

East Carolina Playhouse

With membership open to any student enrolled in the college taking a curriculum leading to an engineering degree, the Delta Chapter of Professional Engineers was organized with ten charter members. The two year old East Carolina College organization strives to provide a program of professional development and orientation for the engineering student. With thirty-eight active members, the club, affiliated with the National Society of Professional Engineers, has guest speakers including electrical, civil, and mechanical engineers, faculty members, and students.

In its twenty-third year on the college campus, the East Carolina Playhouse has once again proved its ability to entertain the students, faculty, and people of Eastern North Carolina. Activities were begun early in the Fall in order that the playhouse could have a successful season. The primary aim of this organization is to train actors and technicians for further work in the dramatic world. "Robin Hood," "Antigone," "The Merchant of Venice," "Auntie Mame," and "The Glass Menagerie" were the five main productions of the playhouse this year.

Engineers Club

One of the most active and largest organizations on campus is Phi Beta Lambda of the Future Business Leaders of America. Projects undertaken by the club this year included collecting donations, sponsoring the traditional Valentine Dance, and selling records of the college alma mater. During the summer, Mary Helen Mumford and Bill Hudson attended the National Convention held in Washington, D. C. At that time, the local chapter was awarded the Gold Seal Chapter Award and the Blue Ribbon Award. Due to the large membership of the ECC organization, one hundred ninety-seven, they won Second Place in Eastern District Membership competition.

Future Business Leaders of America

Special activities of the Home Economics Club included selling Christmas cards, helping underprivileged families, and selling candy made by the Home Economics Department. Public relations of the organization were heightened by a "get-acquainted" picnic for freshmen in the fall. Throughout the year, the club continued to promote greater interest in the field of home economics, internal fellowship, and provided a means by which students can develop leadership and initiative through participation in the activities of the organization.

Betty Rose Frazier, president; Audrey Holloman, vice-president; Sharon Keel, secretary; Annie Marie Riddick, treasurer; Brenda Smith, 'Buccaneer' reporter; Judy Harrison, 'East Carolinian' reporter.

Home Economics Club

To emphasize the need for Industrial Arts in North Carolina and to promote fellowship, professional interest, and growth among students enrolled in the department are the purposes of the Industrial Arts Club. Highlighting the club's activities were a welcoming party for in-coming freshmen, the giving of an award for the best decorated dormitory at Homecoming, and attendance at the North Carolina Industrial Arts Fair.

Library Club

Established to help the students of Library Science or other persons interested in the library to have a broader understanding of this field, the Library Club was organized in the fall of 1953. Procuring speakers for Children's Book Week and National Library Week, conducting tours through the library on High School Day, and sponsoring a booth in the annual College Union Carnival are some of the numerous projects undertaken by the club.

Maye Waters, co-vice-president; Linda Grady, secretary-treasurer; Sylvia Wallace, president; Donald O'Brien, co-vice-president.

Endeavoring to further an interest in mathematics and to acquaint members with various aspects of the field, the Maria D. Graham Mathematics Club sponsors an annual field trip to points of great mathematical interest. This year the organization toured Seymour Johnson Air Force Base. Through social activities such as the Christmas Party and the Annual Spring Banquet sponsored by the club, a better relationship is created among the members.

Mathematics Club

Twelve students interested in developing poise, grace, and agility organized and participated in the college Modern Dance Club this year. Open to both men and women students, participation in the organization is a means of conditioning the body and interpreting ideas through this media. Two performances were presented at the college in the Spring, one for the Health and Physical Education Departmental meeting and another for the theater workshop. Miss Lorraine Graff, faculty member of Health and Physical Education, served the club as advisor.

Modern Dance Club

Music Educators National Conference

Pat Tyndall, treasurer; Betsy Orr, secretary; Jesse Holton, vice-president; Brett Watson, president.

Striving to give music education students the privilege of participating in the State, Regional, and National Conferences, the Music Educators National Conference members prepare themselves for a better future in music. Meetings of the club offer interesting programs concerning music education. Two years ago the East Carolina chapter had the largest student chapter representation in the nation at Atlantic City, New Jersey, with twenty-two members attending the national convention. Last year the chapter had the largest representation at the Southeastern Convention in Asheville.

Having the motto, "The deed is everything, the fame is nothing," the local Nursing Club strives to promote professional and social unity among student nurses and to serve as a channel of communication between the ECC student nurses and the North Carolina Student Nurses Association. Special activities of the club are the providing of Christmas cheer in the form of favors and gifts for hospital patients, diversional activities throughout the year, and support of charitable activities that arise on campus.

Gloria Crawley, secretary; Billie McDougald, vice-president; Selma Morris, president; Donnie Barnhill, treasurer; Jeanette Jones, historian.

Nursing Club

Psychology Club

Katrina Crumpler, secretary; Charles Moore, president; Larry Byrd, vice-president; Wilbur Castellow, treasurer.

Organized to promote more interest in the field of Psychology or human behavior, the Psychology Club endeavors to present interesting films and topics at informal discussion meetings. Trips to the State Mental Institution, Caswell Training School, and psychological clinics are instituted by the club. In addition, the members have demonstrations and films on handwriting analysis, brainwashing, and hypnosis.

Janice Tripp, secretary; Woody Shepard, treasurer; Gordon Patrick, president; Reggie Edgerton, vice-president.

To foster an interest in progress in health and physical and recreational education is the purpose of the Physical Education Club. Being responsible for planning the programs for the Physical Education departmental meetings, the club endeavors to enrich the knowledge and experience of physical education majors by providing interesting and beneficial programs and projects for the club. Members of the club supervise the opening of college recreational facilities on weekends.

Physical Education Club

Bringing together students who have a common interest in science is the purpose of the Science Club. Individual research is encouraged. For the last three years, excellent student research papers have been presented to the Collegiate Academy of Science for exhibition. Special activities for the year included a spring trip to Hanging Rock Park near Winston-Salem, and participation in the Collegiate Academy of the North Carolina Academy of Science, whose annual meeting was held at Wake Forest.

Science Club

Organized in December, 1959, the Society for Advancement of Management now has thirty members. To develop human resources and to provide business with a better product to train, mold, and refine is the ultimate goal of SAM. Various educational tours to places of business interest in the eastern portion of the state were held by the members. Scheduled first this year was a trip to Wilson to visit the Merrill, Lynch, Mills, and Smith Stock Exchange and the Swift Packing Company.

Fred Johns, president; Jimmy Wheatley, vice-president; Peggy Culverhouse, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Clifford Knight, advisor.

Society for the Advancement of Management

Student National Education Association

Faye Brantley, president; Joyce Faye Williams, treasurer; Betty Ann Rogers, secretary; Betty Collier, vice-president.

Students, as members of the Robert H. Wright Chapter of the Student National Education Association, are acquainted with the history, ethics, organization, policies, and progress of the association. The members strive to interest capable men and women in education as a life-long career. Throughout the year, the SNEA supported quite actively all campus functions, especially the James S. Ficklen Memorial Stadium Fund Drive.

Maurice Allen, secretary; Anna Baldwin, girl's president; Charles Smith, boy's president.

In the interests of better health and physical fitness, one hundred and thirty ECC students organized a Weight Training Club at the beginning of the 1961-1962 school year. Meetings were held twice-monthly, at which time exchanges of ideas and demonstrations in weight lifting and other calisthenics were made. Ray H. Martinez, swimming and tennis coach at the college, served the new organization as faculty advisor.

Weight Training Club

Women's Recreation Association

Ann Craft, president; Becky Wayne, treasurer; Linda Harvell, secretary; Imogene Turner, vice-president.

Under the supervision of the Women's Recreation Association, an intramural program for all women students was set up for team competition in softball, basketball, and volleyball and for individual competition in badminton, tennis, and archery. In this program, the organization endeavored to encourage spirit of play, physical activities among the student body, physical efficiency, and the development of good citizenship. Through the organization, one of our new clubs originated this year, the Modern Dance Club.

Beginning with a visit of Dr. Wallace Hyde, executive secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, the Young Democrats Club has had an extremely active year. The purpose of the club is to stimulate in the students an interest in better government and to encourage more active participation in politics. Although the club does not endorse any particular candidate for nomination in the Democratic primaries, its support does go to the Democratic nominee in the fall elections and to the party as a whole at all times.

Lloyd Prout, vice-president; Sylvia Wallace, secretary; Anne Frances Allen, president; Jim Kirkland, treasurer.

Greeks

Congeniality based on character—that is the fraternity and sorority system at East Carolina College. Contributing to the betterment of the college youth, these Greek organizations offer to their members both rich and rewarding experiences. The many phases of the Greek system combine to make this college a more democratic and enjoyable place, a place where persons may “belong,” if they so desire. Through participation in Greek activities, students enjoy a rare privilege to be actively engaged in close association with their “sisters” or “brothers.”

Inter-Fraternity Council

Since its origin in 1958, the Inter-Fraternity Council has served as the governing body of the social fraternities on campus. At present, there are seven national and three local fraternities under its jurisdiction. Each one has three representatives including the presidents of each fraternity. Business is carried on and officers elected in a similar manner as they are in each of the individual member fraternities. Committees are set up for different orders of business with these committees consisting of members selected from the floor.

Rushing, pledging, initiations and the general welfare of the fraternities are but a few of the orders of business facing the IFC at each meeting.

Greek Weekend, the highlight of the year for the fraternities, always proves to be a great success. Many name bands and vocal groups are considered for the weekend's entertainment. Greek Weekend, as it is called locally, held May 5, 1962, was no exception, for it surpassed all previous years.

Improvement of informal rush for Winter Quarter is discussed by the IFC.

A new design in Punch Bowls was found at the highly successful Greek Weekend held in May.

IFC REPRESENTATIVES: Bernie Averette, Wayne Holiman, B. D. Mills, Wiley Lewis, Jerry Persons, and Seated, Sam James, Ashley Humphrey, Neil Seid, Blarrie Tanner.

Rushees were entertained by popular music provided by Sigma Nu Brothers.

IFC REPRESENTATIVES: Al Cherrin, Jim Maner, Louis Adler, Ed Block, Jim Cross, and Seated, S. Dallas, Tom Elam, Phil Lankford, Mickey Conklin.

Colonized at East Carolina College in the Winter Quarter of last year. Alpha Epsilon Pi has, in a period of one and one-half years, grown from the original eight brothers to a much larger number. The local Epsilon Kappa Chapter is classified as a Jewish-sponsored, non-sectarian fraternity.

With a goal of developing high standards of social and intellectual fellowship among its members, Alpha Epsilon Pi thus hopes to make them more qualified to take a proper place in the universities and colleges of America.

Pledge Stuart Seigel discusses coming social events of the fraternity with Alpha Epsilon Pi President Howard Rubin.

Brother Alan Cherrin welcomes new pledges, Phil Somers, Bernie Beloff, and Stan Marin, following Fall Rush.

Gil Ruderman, Bill Elman, Sylvan Kushmar, Tom Mortalaro, pledges of the newly-formed fraternity receive instructions on closed study hall from Brother Steve Gallup.

The K.A.'s sing carols at the Christmas party before leaving for the holidays.

K.A.'s came out in true southern tradition for the Homecoming parade.

Brothers Hart, Murray, and Kirkland inform Rushees of the duties of a pledge during Fall Rush.

Living up to the ideals established by Robert E. Lee, members of the KA Order conduct themselves in the manner of true southern gentlemen. Sponsoring a Christmas party for underprivileged children, a car wash for the stadium fund, and a food drive for needy families, the KA's have proved that they endeavor to help those less fortunate.

Founded at Washington College on December 21, 1865, and here at East Carolina on September 26, 1958, this fraternity attended the "Old South Ball" and recognized Convivum weekend on January 19 to celebrate Robert E. Lee's birthday. Honors won by the KA Order included the championship of both tennis and football within the interfraternity league.

Highlighting this year's festivities in Phi Kappa Tau was the signing of the charter on February 3 making the colony a nationally affiliated chapter. Other events included the adoption of a family at Christmas, the campus improvement project, and the other well-planned socials. Honors that have been accorded to the Phi Tau's were first place in the float division of homecoming weekend and the Board of Trustees Scholarship Award.

Phi Kappa Tau seeks to establish the close bonds of brotherhood and to be a credit to the national fraternity, the college, and the community.

Pi Kappa Alpha, founded at the University of Virginia in 1868, has grown during its 93 years to 137 chapters. Epsilon Mu chapter at East Carolina College was chartered May 17, 1958. Pi Kappa Alpha stands for "The establishment of friendship on a firmer and more lasting basis; for the promotion of brotherly love and kind feeling; for the mutual benefit and advancement of the interest of those with whom we sympathize and deem worthy of our regard."

Men who wear the Shield and Diamond Pika Pin strive to strengthen the bonds of friendship, build character, and grow intellectually. Some of Pi Kappa Alpha's achievements during its four years at East Carolina include setting up the first fraternity house, winning the first and second Greek Week, and winning the Scholarship Trophy. Also, Pika was the first fraternity to hold a District Convention at East Carolina College and to operate a full time dining room.

To believe in the life of love, to walk in the way of honor, to serve in the light of truth . . . this is the creed of the Sigma Nu fraternity. On May 16, 1959, the Eta Beta Chapter of Sigma Nu was installed on the campus of East Carolina. Since its founding at the Virginia Military Institute in 1869, the Sigma Nu's have grown to one of the largest national social fraternities.

In the realm of activities, the Sigma Nu's and the Pika's played a football game for the benefit of the stadium fund. The Sigma Nu's also aided in the campus clean up after the invasion of Hurricane Donna.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, "the Fraternity with a heart," has now grown to one hundred and fifty-five chapters in forty-seven states since its beginning in Richmond on November 1, 1901. Established on the East Carolina College Campus on April 15, 1961, the Kappa Chapter has established as its purpose the lasting bonds of brotherhood. Since this is the fraternity with a heart, the Sig Eps helped with the Heart Fund Campaign here in Greenville.

Included in the social activities of the year were the Sigma Phi Epsilon Ball in Charlotte, which was attended by the new chapters in the Carolinas, and the local Founder's Day Ball.

Through undertaking several projects including assistance in the Red Cross Blood Mobile, the March of Dimes Drive, and the sending of "Care" packages at Christmas, the Panhellenic Council has functioned proficiently this past year. In addition, each of the eight sororities, whose Senior and Junior delegates form the council, has volunteered to select a candidate for the 1962 "Miss Greenville" Pageant. A Mardi Gras Party for children at Caswell School and a program for the 1962 County Home for the Aged was also given.

Formal Rush, one of the largest responsibilities of the Panhellenic Council, included Open House for prospective rushees in October and a convocation held at the beginning of the winter quarter. A Panhellenic booklet was published with information pertaining to the Council and each of the sororities. These booklets were issued to all freshman girls.

Greek Weekend, the highlight of the year, was co-sponsored by the Panhellenic Council and the Inter-Fraternity Council.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Aiding the Chronic Senile Ward of the State Hospital in Butner, North Carolina, the Zeta Psi Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi has worked for the betterment of those less fortunate. Founded nationally at Barnard College in New York on January 2, 1897, and locally on February 6, 1960, this sorority was awarded the Collegiate Chapter Achievement Award at its National convention in June, 1961. Membership in Alpha Omicron Pi is based on character and like-mindedness. With these qualities as goals, the twenty-eight members of this organization have worked together in participating in the Sorority Spectacular and the Sorority and Fraternity All-Sing. One of the oldest social sororities for women. Alpha Phi was founded at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, in 1872, and was initiated at East Carolina on February 12, 1960. To develop character, conduct, and culture are the main purposes of Alpha Phi.

Cardiac aid was adopted as the National Philanthropy of Alpha Phi in 1946. Since that time, members have donated hundreds of hours of volunteer work to local heart associations and other community projects. Alpha Phi also has provided numerous scholarships to students under the Alpha Phi Foundation.

Some of the many social events in which the Alpha Phis have participated include dances with fraternities on campus, the Azalea Festival house party, and the alumni party for graduates.

Alpha Phi has received several honors this year such as winning the Silver and Hi-Phi Award for scholarship for maintaining the highest above-all sorority average. In Women's Intramurals, Alpha Phi won the softball championship and placed second in archery and third in the swim fun meet. Seven Alpha Phis attended the district convention at the University of West Virginia, and this June the Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Phi will be sending delegates to the National Convention at Lake Placid, New York.

Showing a rushee the Alpha Xi Delta display were sisters Dawn Austin and Gail Elkins.

By giving Christmas parties to underprivileged children and by supporting and educating a local girl, the Alpha Xi Delta's strive to be an active influence for the good of the college campus. The Gamma Phi Chapter of Alpha Xi Delta was the first to go national at East Carolina College. This event took place on September 12, 1959; the national founding occurred at Lombard College in Galesburg, Illinois, on April 17, 1893. In addition to helping the needy, Alpha Xi Delta captured first place in the Sorority Spectacular, first place in sorority volleyball competition, and second place for their Homecoming float. Encouraging the formation of lasting friendships among fraternities and sororities, Alpha Xi Delta annually sponsors a Greek All-Sing.

With the theme of "Let's Pick Elon," the Alpha Xi's won second prize for their Homecoming float.

Formal rush gave the sisters and rushees a chance for both socializing and the latest gossip.

Adopting a child from Hong Kong, giving a weiner roast for the football players, and having a portrait of Dean White painted for the Panhellenic Room were the projects undertaken by Delta Zeta Sorority this year. Founded nationally at Miami University on October 24, 1902, and locally on February 6, 1960, this organization unites its members in the bonds of sincere and lasting friendships, stimulates the pursuit of knowledge, promotes moral culture, and develops plans for guidance. These ideals combine to make a Delta Zeta's life one of sincere aims and high purposes.

Founded on April 20, 1893, on the campus of Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia, Sigma Sigma Sigma has provided new friendships and harmonious living to its thirty-five members. Tri-Sigma also has strived to make others happy with their support of the Robbie Page Memorial Division of the North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill. In addition, the Sigmas gave gifts and parties to the crippled children and to the needy families during the holiday season. Chartered on the East Carolina College campus in February, 1960, the Gamma Beta Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma has as its colors royal purple and white and as its flower the purple violet. With the open motto of "Faithful Unto Death," Tri-Sigma has continuously promoted high standards, faithful service, and excellence in scholarship.

Professional And Honorary

A rapid growth has taken place in the number of professional and honorary fraternities here on the East Carolina College campus, as well as an expanded growth throughout the nation. Seventy-five per cent of these fraternities represent the fields of architecture, chemistry, commerce, engineering, law, medicine, and music. Emphasizing academic and scholastic aspects of student life is the primary aim of the professional, service, and honorary fraternities. The composite of these societies at East Carolina include one service, four professional, and ten honorary fraternities.

Founded nationally in 1924, Sigma Tau Delta now has grown to one hundred and four chapters. The Omicron Theta Chapter established here this year is the first chapter of the Fraternity in North Carolina. Its purpose is three-fold: promotion of the mastery of written expression, encouragement of worthwhile reading, and fostering a spirit of fellowship among men and women specializing in English.

Any English major or minor who has been enrolled in the college for a quarter may become a member of Sigma Tau Delta. In addition the student must have taken one English course and have an overall average of C.

To supplement classroom work with actual experience, to explore education, to give the members an opportunity to meet first hand problems and situations in the field, and to provide the opportunity to work and learn—these are the purposes of Tau Sigma. The Alpha Chapter of this honorary education fraternity was founded on the East Carolina campus in the Spring of 1955. Membership in Tau Sigma is open to any education major who has an overall B average.

To highlight this year's work, the Tau Sigmas took a trip to the Caswell Training School to observe the methods of teaching retarded children. In addition to this, much fun was had on the beach trip to Morehead.

Religion

Baptist and Methodist Churches were the preference of the majority of students in a poll taken by the office of Mr. D. D. Gross, Director of Religious Activities. Twenty-six different faiths or denominations were listed on the 3788 cards turned in by a portion of East Carolina students. Those reporting a preference for the Baptist denomination numbered 1449. Methodist preference totaled 1171. Presbyterians were next with 426. Others included 136 Episcopalians, 145 Free Will Baptists, 118 Roman Catholics, 62 Lutherans, 46 Pentecostal Holiness, 37 Hebrews, 30 Christians, 23 Quakers, and 20 Church of Christs. In addition, fifteen other churches or faiths were preferred by fewer than twenty students.

To supplement the ministry of the local churches, the Baptist Student Union's weekly program included Monday night supper forums, Wednesday night vespers, and Sunday night singspirations. Among the activities of the Baptist Student Union were the monthly mission programs and projects, the annual retreats and conventions, and the Christmas caroling. All of this was enjoyed by the three hundred and fifty active Baptist students on campus.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the meeting place of the Canterbury Club for 1961-1962. This organization is open to the entire college community for the purpose of offering spiritual guidance and Christian fellowship through its many social activities. The Canterbury centered its existence around the altar with Holy Communion every Wednesday afternoon.

Free Will Baptist Fellowship

Betty Lou Spruill, president; Kenneth Proctor, vice-president; Faye Pope, secretary; Robert E. Lee, treasurer.

Each Monday night, the Free Will Baptist Fellowship met for the purpose of providing a program of Christian fellowship for its members. At this time, either a student, member, or special speaker addressed the group, followed by a supper hour served by the ladies of the local church and surrounding churches of Greenville. Special activities for the year consisted of wiener roasts by the campus fireplace, a Valentine banquet, and traditional Christmas caroling. These blend together to make the three "F's" of this active organization—fellowship, food, and fun.

Begun in the Fall of 1960, the Hebrew Youth Fellowship now has twenty members, making membership twice its original size. This Jewish organization actively participated in Religious Emphasis Week and had various social events throughout the year. Through these activities, the Jewish students and the students of other faiths on campus have much better religious relationships.

Howard Rubin, president; Neil Seid, vice-president; Judy Goodman, secretary.

Hebrew Youth Fellowship

Open to all students affiliated with Gospel Churches, the King Youth Fellowship strives to provide Christian fellowship, to render service to the campus and community, and to offer wholesome, recreational and social activities. Highlights of this year in the King Youth Fellowship were the Homecoming weekend activities, the traditional Winter banquet, and the group trip taken in the Spring.

Lindsay Quick, president; Sudie Lee, secretary; Carolyn Royal, corresponding secretary; Johnny Hedgepeth, vice-president.

King Youth Fellowship

Ronald Shoup, president; Helen Kallio, secretary; Bob Christesen, vice-president.

Fellowship is the main objective of the Lutheran Student Association. Organized in the Spring of 1955, the East Carolina chapter of the organization provides students with an opportunity for worship, study, and service. During October, this association took part in the annual Fall Retreat, and, in the Spring, the Lutheran students participated in their Spring Weekend, called Ashram.

Lutheran Student Association

Mental, physical, and spiritual education make a perfectly sound development of character. Therefore, this is the purpose and aim of the Mutual Improvement Association. Under the leadership of Lynn Jorgensen, this twenty-five member group met every Wednesday, gaining knowledge, using it with wisdom, building character, and achieving intelligence, thus making stepping stones to joy, which is the purpose of life.

Bill Willis, vice-president; Michelle Coviello, first counselor; Lovelle Lanier, second counselor; Lynn Jorgensen, president.

Mutual Improvement Association

Under the guidance of Mary Westbrook, the Newman Club has once again had a fulfilling year. The Newman Club, an association of Catholic students, is a nation-wide organization. The purposes of the club are to promote social activities in a spiritual manner, to learn more about the Catholic faith, and to worship in a rightful way. In order to fulfill these purposes, the Newman Club met each week in the "Y" hut.

Pat Farris, Bill Phelps, president Mary Westbrook, Father Sullivan, vice-president Anthony Gruszczywski, secretary Francis Bailey.

Newman Club

Marjorie Holland, treasurer; Betty Collier, secretary; Tweetie Land, first vice-president; Martha Ellis, second vice-president; Bebe Barrett, president.

Sponsored by the Presbyterian Church, the local Westminster Fellowship is an organization for the students of East Carolina. Every Monday afternoon the group met to enjoy a film, a speaker, or a discussion. After the inspiration of the message discussed, supper was served to them. The purpose of this organization is to maintain a place where students may come to worship, to serve, and to socialize. This purpose is accomplished by the Fall retreat and the Synod Westminster Fellowship Conference.

Wesley Foundation

Faye Bright, secretary; Bob Parsons, president; Fallon Melvin, vice-president; Beverly Cox, treasurer; Mamie Chandler, director.

This year, the Wesley Foundation has emphasized study groups and communication with the fine arts. Under the dominion of the Methodist Church, this foundation has experienced much growth through the weekly programs of worship, communion, and Bible classes. Through these media, the Methodist students on campus have learned to be of service, to witness, and to gain knowledge in the Christian realm of life.

George Griffith, treasurer; Alfred Nance, vice-president; Beverly Cox, secretary; Bob Parsons, president.

Recreational benefits and educational facilities are offered to members of the Young Men's Christian Association, as well as a healthy religious environment. The YMCA has as its aim, to encourage and foster, among students, the ideals of clean living, lofty thinking, and physical fitness. These ideals combine to make an excellent Christian character; the YMCA strives to accomplish this through chapel services which were held every Tuesday evening in the "Y" hut.

Young Men's Christian Association

Young Women's Christian Association

Ann Martin, vice-president; Lynda Lewis, president; Judy Godwin, treasurer; Patsy Wiley, secretary.

Worthwhile projects were the primary contributions of the Young Women's Christian Association here on the campus this year. At both Christmas and Thanksgiving, this organization helped several needy families have a happy holiday season. The seventy young college girls which compose this club also helped sponsor the weekly chapel services of the college. Since 1855, the YWCA has strived to meet the needs of students, spiritually, mentally, and socially.

Reverend Terry Anger, Father Sullivan, Reverend Robert Crawford, and Dr. Dawyer Gross.

Mamiej Chandler and Dwight Fickling

Religious Advisory Council

In coordinating religious activities on campus, the Religious Advisory Council and the Inter-Religious Council work closely together. Religious Emphasis Week, a project planned solely to encourage students to evaluate and to think about religion and its influence on them, was the highlight of the year. It featured a program of "jazz meditation," a lecture by Dr. George Schwitzer, nuclear scientist, and a one-act play, "The Sand Bar." Throughout the year, progress in promoting religious activities was made by the two groups.

Military

In 1946, the United States Air Force began a Reserve Officers Training Corps here at East Carolina. At present, this department consists of two hundred and ten cadets, two instructors, and one professor of air science which compose the one group, two squadrons, and eight flights. Since the AFROTC is the largest source of Air Force officers, this is the prime purpose of the unit. These capable graduates will enter the Air Force as Second Lieutenants. These are the men who will one day become the backbone of America's armed services.

Two hundred and ten cadets began the year of training in the Department of Air Science. With many projects and social functions including a "Dining In," a Spring Military Ball, a Marchathon for the March of Dimes, and service projects such as food for the underprivileged and Christmas parties for small children.

In its fifth year, the Flight Instructional Program, an integral part of the AFROTC training for all seniors who have been classified in the Air Force pilot category, is designed to screen all cadets in their basic aptitude for flying, and to discover those who lack the ability or the desire for Air Force pilot training upon graduation and commissioning.

Arnold Air Society

Cadet Colonel Sanders W. Grady
Commander

This local honorary organization for AFROTC students, the General Chenault Squadron of the Arnold Air Society, is composed of cadets selected upon their interest in the cadet corps, their leadership ability, their AFROTC grade average, and their over-all accumulative grade average. Persons selected serve the group in a pledge period, then become members who propose and carry out the objectives of the society through support and service to the AFROTC.

BRENDA NUNNERY
Commander

ANGEL FLIGHT: Bobby Hooper, Billie McDougald, Janie Harris, Lynn Slaughter, Becky Basnight, Linda Mills, and Brenda Nunnery.

Angel Flight

East Carolina's Angel Flight, one of forty-one in the nation, has among its purposes maintaining high morale in Detachment 600, AFROTC, at the college, and furthering recognition of the AFROTC through service. Members act as official hostesses for military events on campus and also function as a drill unit. While on duty, they wear a chic, official uniform.

Drill Team

Captain Edward J. Farrell
Drill Team Commander

Last Spring, the East Carolina Drill Team won third place in the Area C Drill Competition. Along with this performance, the twenty-two members of the team annually performed a Marchathon for the March of Dimes and donned their uniforms for numerous parades. This activity gives the ROTC members a chance to learn precision drilling and advanced marching tactics while providing a worthy civic service.

Parades are an important part of the lives of men in the East Carolina AFROTC Drill Team.

RIFLE TEAM: Jimmy Mostello, Andy Burns, Stanley Purvis, Jerry Taylor.

AFROTC

Each of the ROTC cadets finds it his duty to raise and lower the flag periodically as assigned by his commanding officer.

The 1961 Military Ball Queen, Lib Rogers, receives roses from Lieutenant Colonel Norman Merritt, Professor of Air Science.

Members of the FIP plan learn from actual experience, the functions of the various parts of the airplane.

Mary Elizabeth Powell, a member of the local Angel Flight, was selected as Commander for the North and South Carolina Angel Flights.

Radio And Television

Ready, Camera One . . . Sound Up . . . Cross Fade to One . . . Cue Him . . . so goes the dialogue as another radio or television program gets underway. With these words, positions are taken, programs are begun, and the students on campus are once more hearing or seeing their favorite programs. Under the supervision of Dr. Corinne Rickert, the East Carolina campus radio and television stations have added spark, merriment, and, of course, education to the everyday lives of the student body. Prior to 1962, Miss Rosalind Roulston and Dr. Corinne Rickert both served capably in the respective positions of Director of Campus Radio and Director of Campus Television. Revisions were made in the departments and now, the two positions have been combined into one, with Dr. Rickert serving as Director of Broadcasting.

Radio

WWWS Radio, formed in 1957, first on an FM basis in April and then on an AM basis in the Summer, has a fifteen member staff. The AM portion of Campus Radio is self-supporting, whereas the FM is supported by the college. With air time from 2:00 p.m. until 12:00 midnight, programs include Downbeat, Audio, Dinner Music, Adventures in Fidelity, College Union Dance Party, Campus Radio News, Dedicated To You, and Sign-Off. WWWS Radio is certainly an asset to the college and student body with its music and its up-to-date news items.

Television

With a twenty-seven member staff, the Campus Television went into operation in the Fall of 1958. Financed by the college, television on the campus is a means of educating, for many subjects are taught on TV, including courses in Music Appreciation, Art Appreciation, Psychology, Health, Geography, and Business. This method of educating the maximum also serves as an entertainment medium. Entertaining portions of the local television station comes under the TV Guild, an organization interested in giving its members television experience.

Graduates

East Carolina College is approved for graduate instruction by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and by the North Carolina College Conference. The graduate program is planned within the pattern of work as provided in the standards for the Master's degree as set by these associations. The College offers two graduate degrees—The Master of Arts and The Master of Arts in Education. All applicants for graduate study are required to take the Graduate Record Examination before admission to candidacy for the degree. Pictured in this section is but a small portion of the total graduate enrollment of East Carolina College.

Sports

Intramural Sports

J. W. Edwards is in deep formation as his Country Gentlemen winners in the Independent League face Kappa Alpha's, winners of the Fraternity League, in the championship game.

It is strategy time as the Country Gentlemen huddle while deciding who to let score this time. The Gents took the final game, 46-0, to win the title.

Fred Daniels and Irwin Roberts put the red dog on as Bob Boxley forms the pass pocket.

Two divisions, team and individual, compose the local intramural program. In team sports, the program has touch football, volleyball, softball, swimming, and golf. Individual sports are tennis, horseshoes, badminton, and wrestling.

Emblematic of the ECC men's intramural championship is the President's Cup which is awarded to a group on a total points basis. In individual competition, a trophy is awarded to the champion and to the runner-up. The top, individual trophy is the Sportsman Cup, awarded to the individual grossing more points.

Recreation, social contact, permanent interest in sports, group spirit, and physical fitness are the objectives of the intramural program. Under the direction of Wendell Carr and J. F. Jones, the program has grown over the past year. Three leagues now exist, fraternity, dormitory, and off-campus.

While the men have a more established program, women also compete at ECC. Virtually the same sports are participated in by the coeds.

Football

Wilbur Castellow and Bob Boxley get under punt in Intramural League play.

Intramural basketball took the spotlight in the Winter. The reason is evident in this action shot of one of the typically fierce games.

Hands go up as a close range shot is gotten off in this league affair.

Basketball

Pi Kappa Alpha's Charlie Zucker manages to get the shot away, despite Phi Kappa Tau's Ronnie Grove's effort to block it.

Tommy Maddox of Lambda Chi Alpha shoots for two more points in a Fraternity League game.

Intramurals Basketball

A fast break climax is reached as Pika's Charlie Zucker lays up for that extra two points.

James Baker drives into the goal area for an easy lay-up.

Trailing Sig Eps block their opponents in a close game with Sigma Nu.

Practice was also important as the Sigma Phi Epsilon group sharpens up their skills in an extra squad game.

Close play is typical occurrence in the round-ball game.

Scramble for a rebound occurs in this close contest.

Alpha Phi's close in on the ball in their game with Alpha Xi Delta.

Dorm League action features Wilson and Jarvis Halls.

Alpha Xi Delta and Alpha Phi vie for ball possession in the Sorority League intramural play.

This snow bird is hotly contested when the faculty members meet the students in the annual affair.

Spring Sports

In the Spring, minds turn to more than thoughts of love; among these are baseball, track, tennis, and golf. East Carolina's real dominance of the old North State Conference and the new Carolinas Conference is in Spring sports. As has been true for the past five years, final baseball standings found the Bucs in first place; tennis finals also saw East Carolina leading its contenders; and, on the golf greens, the Pirates emerged once again as champions. By winning the national NAIA baseball crown, the Bucs gained additional prestige in athletic circles.

Baseball

Following a hit by Lacy West, Floyd Wicker crosses home in the Grambling College game.

Four-leaf clovers are the object of the search by East Carolina's championship bound Pirates.

Larry Crayton, who won more games than any other pitcher in East Carolina history, posted a 23-4 record in three years of North State Conference competition.

Spencer Gaylord hooks into third during a national tournament game against Sacramento.

Tournament Title . . .

East Carolina climaxed a tremendous season by winning the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics championship. This great achievement was a tribute to the members of the team and all who were closely associated with them.

Our own "Bucs" travelled to the North State Conference title for the third straight year by sweeping through the games with only one loss. In the regular season play, the record was a highly commendable 18 wins, 3 losses. Larry Crayton again led the moundsmen with a 7 to 1 conference record.

Advancing to the district playoffs in Atlanta, East Carolina defeated two clubs, thus giving them the opportunity to travel to the national play-offs in Sioux City, Iowa. In the finals, East Carolina beat Sacramento State to win the national title.

A very enthusiastic crowd of thousands saw the "Bucs" parade victoriously into Greenville. Publicity gained by the college's taking the national title gave added prestige to the East Carolina College athletic program.

Slugging Jim Martin crosses up Sam Houston College by laying down a bunt.

1961 Baseball

Coach Jim Mallory did a fine job with the limited personnel available to him. Several of the major participants were unable to travel to the play-offs due to various complications. All-conference short-stop, Glenn Bass, was injured in the tournament.

As a result, lineup for the first game was an improvised one.

The three East Carolina All-Tournament players display their plaques. Selected for this honor were Larry Crayton, Cotton Clayton and Floyd Wicker.

... And The North State

Spencer Gaylord sends a one-hopper through the infield and reaches first safely.

Wally Cockrell, Floyd Wicker and Cotton Clayton discuss professional contracts after the close of the final game.

Larry "Pumpsie" Crayton is awarded the Most Valuable Player at Sioux City.

Jim Martin smacks a clothes-line single in the final game of the N.A.I.A. championship.

Tennis

Expected occurrence—this sums up the reaction after the East Carolina net men won the conference title. Each spring for the past decade, the Buccaneers have either been on top or pressing the leaders. This past spring was no exception. Led by Harry Felton, the Wendell Carr coached tennis team swept North State honors.

Trips to far away places highlighted the program here. Miami was the most distant destination; and in that tournament some of the nation's top teams participated.

Regular seasons wins were capped by victories over Wake Forest and several northern clubs. Often tallies come at the expense of lesser known clubs who came south to take advantage of the tennis weather here in Coastal North Carolina.

Track had one of its better seasons here at East Carolina this past year. The team traveled to many meets and were very successful in several. Breaking the school record for the mile relay, this group was composed of Clayton Piland, Tom Michel, Ned Pickford, and Richard Stevens, the big point-winners for the squad.

Senior Ronnie Knouse was one of the weight men for the "Bucs." He threw both the shot and the javelin and placed in several meets. Clayton Piland placed in the 880 in a tri-meet. Ned Pickford and Tom Michel, both freshmen last year, ran the hundred and won points in the Pirate's meets.

Since all East Carolina track meets take place on the road, few students ever get the opportunity to see their "cinder-men" in action. This situation will be shortly remedied with the addition of the new stadium.

Golf

Don Conley and Vance Taylor make golf easy.

Golf was dominated in the North State Conference by the young men from Greenville. As has been the case in recent years, matches were most often won by East Carolina College, bringing another title their way. Don Conley, who won the individual title, led the team during the regular season. Coach Bill McDonald had several returnees, and these men were reinforced by newcomers to give uniform strength which warded off any attempts to derail the Tee men in their title defense.

Fall Sports

With fall, comes football, the sport that the majority of students look forward to with greatest anticipation. Collegiate football is not only the most glamorous sport, but also, the sport that yields the necessary funds to enable other portions of the athletic program to continue, inter-collegiately. East Carolina College is fortunate in having such a sound football program, one that has color, tradition, and sportsmanship.

Football

Last minute outcomes were the rule rather than the exception in East Carolina College's football contests in the Fall. With close games always welcome to spectators, the throngs that filled the stadium saw more than their share during the 1961 season.

In the new Carolina's Conference, the Jack Boone-coached men dropped three games. Western Carolina got the nod in a rain-soaked duel. Perennial champion Lenoir Rhyne came from behind to snuff any hopes of an upset win. Appalachian took advantage of several miscues to take an early lead, then held on to give East Carolina its final conference loss.

East Carolina Takes Home Opener

EAST CAROLINA .....	19
INDIANA STATE .....	6

The capacity crowd and sunny weather were inspiring factors for East Carolina's Pirates during the Homecoming game.

East Carolina opened the 1961 football season with a 19-6 win over Indiana State Teachers College from Indiana, Pennsylvania. Tom Michel scored three touchdowns in his first varsity game. The Arlington, Va., speedster burst over his left tackle, cut back to the right, and scampered 75 yards for the initial score. Michel scored a second touchdown on a pass from quarterback Gary Parker and a third came in the fourth quarter on a 13-yard run. End Bob Muldrow added the extra point following Michel's third score. The lone Indian score came early in the game after a brief sustained drive. Veteran ECC linemen Clayton Piland, Chuch Gordon, Bobby Bumgardner, and Jones Lockerman were impressive.

East Carolina came from behind to defeat Guilford College in Guilford's Armfield Stadium. The Quakers scored first and made the initial extra point. Then the Pirates tallied on a 37-yard pass play from quarterback Dan Rouse to halfback Tom Michel. Bob Muldrow kicked the extra point to knot the score at 7-7. Muldrow put ECC ahead with an 8-yard field goal. Guilford was not to be denied and came from behind and scored after recovering a Buc fumble almost on the goal line. In the last four minutes of play and the Pirates on the short end of a 15-10 score, ECC gained possession near midfield. Fullback Billy Strickland scored from a few yards out to put East Carolina ahead to stay, 16-15. Muldrow added the extra point. A Guilford rally fell short and the Bucs chalked up victory number two.

Catawba College's Indians fell before the Pirates at Salisbury as the Bucs completely dominated play. In the first quarter, East Carolina marched 96 yards to score the initial touchdown. Halfback Tom Mathews took a Dan Rouse pass for the scoring play. Tri-Captain Nick Hilgert climaxed a 50-yard drive by plunging over from the one yard line for the Pirates' second tally. Bob Muldrow kicked the extra point and eventually garnered an 11-yard field goal to complete the night's scoring. In the second half, East Carolina had to contain the Catawba offense led by Gene Worthington's fine broken field running. Defensive standouts for the Pirates were Clayton Piland, Chuck Gordon, and Earl Sweet. Gene Isenhour's excellent kicking game kept the Indians backed up in Catawba territory most of the evening.

As East Carolina held off a late rally by Elon's Fighting Christians and earned a hard fought Homecoming victory, the Pirate winning streak was stretched to four games. Billy Strickland took the ball into the end zone from one-yard out to cap a 65-yard march which gave the Bucs a 6-0 lead. Bob Muldrow's extra point concluded the scoring for the first half. After intermission, halfback Larry Rudisill scampered 13 yards for an ECC touchdown. Frank Galloway ran 55 yards on a punt return to conclude East Carolina's touchdown parade.

East Carolina saw a four-game winning streak snapped by Western Carolina in a driving rain at Cullowhee. After taking the opening kickoff, the Pirates were forced to punt. A poor kick carried only to ECC 32-yard line. Catamount fullback Lew Bost scurried off tackle for a touchdown on the first play. Van Slayton kicked what proved to be the winning extra point. Ball possession changed back and forth until East Carolina managed a 93-yard march late in the fourth quarter. Nick Hilgert went over for the score. Muldrow's game tying extra point attempt was blocked and ECC trailed, 5-7. The Pirates missed another opportunity to win in the closing moments of the game. Taking possession of the pigskin on the WCC 14-yard line, the Pirates fumbled away a possible winning score.

Fumbles, pass interceptions, and penalties thwarted all East Carolina attempts to muster a sustained march. Losing to powerful Lenoir Rhyne in the last minutes of play marked the second such ECC defeat in three years to the Bears. First blood was drawn by the Bucs in the second period when Tom Michel scored and a Rouse-to-Anderson pass put ECC ahead 8-0. Lenoir Rhyne tallied just before the first half ended with fullback Richard Kemp earning six points. Early in the third quarter, Bear tailback Hal White ramblbed 80 yards for a score to put Lenoir ahead 12-8. ECC was not to be denied, however, and Tommy Matthews returned the ensuing kickoff 50 yards to the Bear 43-yard line. Runs by Michel and Rudisill set up another touchdown. Matthews scored from the 2-yard line. Vince Eiduke ran for the two extra points and ECC led once more, 16-12. After a Lenoir Rhyne touchdown, the scoreboard favored the Pirate opposition, 18-16, until Bob Muldrow added an ECC field goal and produced an ECC lead of 19-18. With less than two minutes to play, a Buccaneer fumble gave the Bruins the ball on Lenoir Rhyne's 6-yard line. Seven plays and 94 yards later Hal White scored the winning touchdown for Lenoir Rhyne.

Thereafter the Pirates and Paladins sparred back and forth with neither team mounting a scoring offensive. Early in the second half Buc halfback Larry Rudisill galloped 59 yards for a touchdown. Dan Rouse passed to Tommy Matthews to put ECC ahead, 8-7. Furman halfback Carmignani put the Pirates behind for good with a one-yard dive and a two-yard dash for the extra points. WOFFORD	20

East Carolina closed the 1961 football season by tying Wofford College from Spartanburg, S. C., 20-20. The game was close all the way with the Pirates garnering 8 points in the final minute of play to tie the Terriers. Dan Rouse, left handed Junior quarterback, passed for all 20 Buc points. On the receiving end was halfback Tommy Matthews for two touchdowns and a double-extra point and Larry Rudisill with the final ECC six-pointer. Matthews grabbed a 32-yard aerial from Rouse early in the game to put the Pirates ahead 6-0. In the second half, Wofford scored twice to lead to a slim 14-12. Not to be outdone, the Terriers countered and led 20-12. With time running out, Rudisill caught a Rouse pass and rambled the final 7 yards to score. Rouse then threw successfully to Matthews for two points and a 20-20 result.

Winter Sports

Chilly weather brought both the participants and the spectators indoors for ECC's ever-popular Winter Sports. Basketball, the game originally invented to whittle away the idle winter hours, takes precedence over all others. However, swimming does not lurk behind. Always a perennial contender for national honors, the swimming team gives the school quality representation. Throughout the season, records were broken and many title holders reigned in the Pirate campus. But, win or lose, all spectators enjoyed themselves at ECC's Winter athletic events, for emphasis is not merely on winning, but also on fairness of play.

Newcomers Richie Williams and Bill Brogden and veteran Danny Bowen did commendable jobs in the back court and shot well from outside. Needed bench support was forthcoming from Bill Penny, Mal Boyette, Dick LeFevre, Russell Knowles, Fred Selvy, and Robert Duke. East Carolina played the spoiler role in the newly formed Carolinas Conference. The Bucs stopped pre-season favorites Elon and Lenoir Rhyne early in the season. Besides playing 18 conference games, the Pirates played Southern Conference clubs from The Citadel, Richmond, William and Mary, and V.P.I. In addition, the Bucs did well in the Christmas vacation tournament held at Camp LeJeune.

Experience, or rather the lack of experience, characterized the Buc swimming team's performances for 1961-'62. Coach Ray Martinez's charges operated without a single Senior. Junior co-captains Bob Kingrey and Ed Zschau led the sophomore and frosh dominated aggregation. Kingrey earned many points in his diving specialties and carried his division in almost every meet. Zschau excelled in the backstroke and broke several pool records. Sophomore strength came from John Baxter, James Roberts, Miles Barefoot, and Ray Stevens, freestyler; and Doug Sutton in the butterfly. ## In Appreciation

Within the following pages is a select group of business concerns—select because they made themselves as such—highly deserving of community service awards. In our appeal for advertisers, they were the ones who answered our pleas; they were the ones to whom we turned for support when the North Carolina Bond Issue failed and who supported our drive for a new football stadium. They were the ones who honored us on East Carolina College Day, when actually, they deserved the honor. To these who have purchased advertisements in the BUCCANEER and who have supported the school in many other ways—yes, to such a community and such a select group of business concerns—go our unending appreciation for support given us throughout 1961-1962.

Editor's Review

In presenting a review of a publication such as the BUCCANEER, the editor and staff often are overly critical of the finished product. Their analysis becomes an abstract of hindsight as they view the various components cemented together on individual copy sheets. The reader, on the other hand, is interested in what is new in the current edition and often questions the purpose of the format design and photographic composition. Then, too, the reader is interested in judging for himself the degree of success attained by the editor and staff in preserving for future readers and viewers a mirror through which the past may be presented. How well the editor and his staff succeeded in this attempt will be measured by you, the student body of East Carolina College.

The primary objective in designing the 1962 BUCCANEER was to make the publication a descriptive, informative and attractive servant and spokesman for Eastern North Carolina, East Carolina College, and the student body. As the college is our portal for an unveiling future, it is the desire of the yearbook staff that this publication will serve as a portal for recalling experiences once shared during 1961-1962.

A first for this year's BUCCANEER is the insignia of membership in the Associated Collegiate Press Conference. Staff personnel were privileged to attend the 1961 convention held in Miami Beach, Florida, and were fortunate in being able to participate in classes instructed by yearbook specialists, Messrs. Benjamin W. Allnutt and C. J. Medlin.

Finally, the editor wishes to acknowledge a portion of those whose efforts made this publication possible. Deep gratitude for a job well done goes to John W. Garriss, Associate Editor, and Tony R. Bowen, Copy Editor. I would also like to recognize Dr. John C. Ellen, our literary advisor, and Miss Gwen Potter who came on board as our financial advisor. To both of them I am very grateful. Commendation is in order for my entire staff for the many hours of arduous labor given to the yearbook production, sometimes, unfortunately, at their academic expense. My appreciation would not be complete without expressing thanks to Mr. Fred Robertson, commercial photographer, who rendered dependable service and made possible the excellent photographs in the major feature sections of the BUCCANEER. The fine cooperation from Gilbert Windham of Photo Arts Studio and Taylor Publishing Company and its excellent representative, Mr. Lee Blackwell, merit special commendation. And last, but by no means least, cooperative thanks must go to the entire student body and each organization represented herein.

Walter Faulkner
